Triple Domestic Tragedy. CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Frederick Freisch quarrelled with his son-in-law, Theodore Eckhart, and the quarrel developed into a fight. Mrs. Eckhardt, seeing that her hus-band was getting the worst of the en-counter, drew a revolver and fired at her father. The latter snatched the revolver from her hands and shot both his daughter and her husband in the head inflicting fatal injuries. He then fatally shot him-self.

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Dec. 1.—Three negroes were burned to death in the guard house at Polkton, N.C. All were accused of stealing. Many citizens were aroused by screams from the guard house and hasten ed to the place, but were too late to save the prisoners. The building was all of wood, small but were strong, and burned rapidly. After the house burned down the charred remains were taken from tae 'm bers. Evidently the negroes tried to burn their way out, and losing control of the fire brought upon themselves their own destruction. CHARLOTTE, N.C., Dec. 1 .- Three negroes jury who has been sitting on the Johnson alleged nurder case every night since last Saturday, has brought in a verdict of man-slaughter against Cass, and Keating is held as an accessory. It will be remem-bered that Johnson, who was under the influence of liquor, struck Cass twice in the face at Borsche's hotel, when the latter clinched with him and they fell heavily to the floor. Cass on too, In the evidence it was shown that Cass struck the deceased several times while the latter was down, and that some onlookers who tried to pull Cass off were stopped by Keating. The affray lasted only about half a minute, but Johnson was dying when picked up. Drs. Caven of Toronto and Cormack of Guelph held a post mortem. Death, they said, was caused by a rup.ure of a blood vessed in the brain, caused by violence. Barried to Death in a Guard House. Burned to Death in a Guard House, Bluefields, Mr. Morgan will take the earliest opportunity to bring to the atten-tion of the Senate his bill relating to the construction of the Nicaraguan canal. This measure is bound to be the cause of muci-discussion and will be championed by Senators Morgan and Frye. There is thought to be but little doubt that it will pass the Senate, but its fate in the House is less certain. The House bill to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy, which was favor ably reported to the Senate on the Sist of July last, will be a matter of earnest dis-cussion, and the anti-option bill may pro-trude itself early in the session. The House bills to admit the territories of Arizona and New Mexico to the sisterhood
