Now for Stock-Taking

You know what that means. The pre-inventory tide is sweeping through our store and the power of its swell is in the prices. Many things will sell this month for less than value, and everything that we can let go without more harm than loss of money will go. You will reap the rich harvest during this great sale.

Local Notes

Oysters in bulk—direct from Baltimore—E. D. Wilson & Son.

Mr. and Mrs. Curzon Lamb entertained very pleasantly a large number of their friends on Friday evening.

Mrs. Davison has sold her house on Main street, just vacated by Mr. Derbyshire, to a Mr. Irwin of Plum Hollow.

On Sabbath last after evening service in the Methodist church, eleven probationers were received into full membership.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Massey on Friday last by a number of Athenian young people.

Mr. and Mrs Hodgins and son, after being for several weeks guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Stevens, returned to their home at Napanee on Friday last.

Miss L. M. Blackburn has been visiting friends in Brockville for a few days and was present at the annual asylum ball, which was held on Thursday last.

Mr. W. G. Parish has been appointed by the county council to succeed Mr I. C Alguire, who is now a county commissioner, on the staff of trustees of Athens high school.

The annual convention of the A. O. U. W. of Ontario will be held in Hamilton on Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 20th and 21st. It is expected that 500 delegates will be present.

All persons holding commissions from the Crown, including magistrates, will now have to take a new oath. This may be done either before Judge McDonald or County Crown Attorney Brown.

The annual meeting of the Bible Society takes place in the Baptist church on Friday evening. Rev Thos. Bennett of Montreal, travelling agent, will deliver an address. The general public will of course be welcomed at this meeting.

Hockey in Athens.

The several times deferred hockey match between teams representing Westport and Athens took place on Shursday evening last. The Athens team was composed of Chas. Arnold, A. Lee, E. Rowsom, B. Lyons, F. Barber, N. Hagerman, and A. Simes. Mr. James McCann of Westport was chosen referee.

In the first half, the visitors took the aggressive from the start and though held pretty well in check, succeeded in scoring 2 goals to Athens 0.

When time was called after intermission, it was evident the Athens players had determined to go in and win; for they rushed the game and gave the visitors some exceedingly lively hockey. The result was 2 to 0 in favor of Athens, leaving the total net result a draw. The visitors were entertained at the Armstrong house.

The death occurred on Monday last of Mary Blancher, relict of the late Samuel Wiltse, at the home of her son Malvin, with whom she had resided during the closing years of her life. She had enjoyed her usual health until Saturday last when by a fall she dislocated her hip, from the effects of which she died. She was in the 81st year of her age. The funeral took place on Tuesday and it was very largely attended. Service was conducted in the church of the Holiness Movement by Rev. R. J. Day.

Lent begins Feb. 20th; Easter Sunday, April 7th.

Mr. T. E. Heffernan of Toledo was a visitor in Athens on Sunday.

On account of continued illness, Miss Green will not resume her music classes this week.

Mr. T. R. Beale, barrister, is now a notary public for the province of Ontario.

Miss Minnie McNamee of Sand Bay is visiting friends in Athens, the guest of Mrs. E. LaGroix.

Mr. J. McNamee of Deloraine, Man. and sister, Frances, have been visiting friends in Athens.

Mrs. W. M. Bavis and Miss Derrigh of Watertown, N. Y., have been guests of Mrs. E. LaGroix, Wellington St.

If your stomach is weak it should have help. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives strength to the stomach and cures dyspepsia and indigestion.

Mrs. M. B. Holmes, Wiltse street, entertained a number of friends and relatives very pleasantly at a birthday dinner on Saturday evening, the 9th inst.

Mr. Fred Barrington of Grand Forks, N. D., who has been visiting old friends in this district for the past two weeks, is this week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Stevens.

LOST—On the streets of Athens, a bunch of some 10 or 12 keys, including post office key. Finder will confer a favor by leaving at Gamble house.—Manford Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Derbyshire removed to Brockville last week. This makes an important reduction in Athens' magisterial force, as Mr. Derbyshire was one of our most capable magistrates.

Mr. S. J. Stevens returned home from Montreal last week, where he had been visiting friends for several days. Mrs. Stevens is still in Montreal, assisting in the care of her daughter, Mrs. J. O'Shea, who has been ill for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Judson returned home from their bridal tour on Thursday evening last and were given a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R D. Judson, in which a number of relatives and friends were pleased participants.

Mr. Lorenzo Beach, accompanied by his wife and family, left Athens on Monday last for Kemptville, where a permanent situation awaited him. During his long connection with the Saunders milling business, Mr. Beach made many friends among the patrons of that institution and he has the best wishes of all for success in his new position.

The fame of the Athens hockeyists has extended to Deloraine, Man., and the secretary has been favored with a challenge from the puck-chasers of that ambitious western village for a matched game. The challenge has been accepted, so that our village is likely to be invaded almost any day by a lot of fur clad, long-furrow farmers on skates.

A matched race for a purse of $100 has been arranged to take place on the ice at Charleston on the afternoon of Tuesday, 26th inst., between John Hudson's horse, "Billy K," and Thos. Curtin's horse, "Cork" The best 3 in 5 heats will decide the difference of opinion which now exists. Both horses are speedy and a keenly contested race is anticipated.

On the evening of the 5th inst., at the home of Mr. John Sturgeon, Fairfield East, Mr. Fred Sturgeon and bride were tendered a reception on their return from a tour among friends in the Perth and Lanark districts. A very pleasant evening was spent with music and games and the company of fifty separated, wishing the couple a long, happy and prosperous life.

MORTON.

Mr. Robert Foley is very low with pneumonia. Dr. McGhie of Elgin is in attendance.

Mr. B. N Henderson and J. Judd had their ice houses filled yesterday.

Deep regret is expressed at the death of Mrs. Matilda Johnston of Sweet's Corners, which occurred on Friday morning last. Though the deceased had been poorly for a long time, her death was still a painful surprise to her friends.

Little Inez Taber has been seriously ill for some time past. She is improving now as fast as could be expected.

We regret to hear that Mr. John Stuart, who is in Brockville General Hospital, is not gaining as his friends could desire. His little son, Charlie, is also very ill at present.

Another tale of woe comes from the home of Mr. Fred Booth whose children are ill with the mumps.

Miss M. Roddick of Lyndhurst called on friends here recently.

Couldn't Estimate its Value!—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart never fails. It relieves in 30 minutes, it cures. It is a beacon light to lead you back to health. W. H. Musselman, of G A. R., Weissport Pa., says: "Two bottles of Dr. Agnew's cure for the Heart entirely cured me of palpitation and smothering spells. Its value cannot be estimated."—139

South American Nervine makes the whole system radiant in perfect health, it accelerates circulation, enriches the blood, penetrates to the very centres of nerve force, builds tissue, makes and keeps people, well. This wonderful remedy has had a charmed experience and has done its greatest work in cases that the medical fraternity had pronounced hopeless.—140.
