CHARLESTON.

W. Heffernan has entered Queen's University at Kingston where he will take up the study of medicine.

Miss Helen Troy, Ottawa, a former teacher of Charleston school, was here over Thanksgiving, a guest of Mrs. E. Webster.

A yacht house is being built here by L. Livingston.

Cedar Park closed the last of September after a busy season.

Everything is quiet here now after the most stirring season in the history of Charleston as a summer resort, and the inhabitants feel rather lonesome. Cottages were full all summer, hotels overflowed at times with guests, and fishing in general was the best.

The farmers are nearly through silo filling and some have started fall plowing.

Watch those dollars—Victory needs them.

Miss Peterson, of Spencerville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Mallory.

A Conservative meeting was held in the Orange hall last week.

Mr. Sherman is working as contractor erecting a new barn at Lansdowne.

Mrs. Fred. Healey is spending a few days with Mrs. Robert Willie, of Lyn.

Mr. Jos. Anderson's machine is cutting corn in this neighborhood.

Referendum Headquarters, Brockville, Ont., Oct. 14, 1919.

Editor Athens Reporter.—

According to reports coming into this office, there seems to be a misunderstanding with respect to Question 4 on the Referendum ballot. A number of voters have signified their intention of voting "Yes" to No. 4 in order to remedy what they consider a weakness in the present method of dispensing liquors for medicinal purposes.

The point to notice, however, and to emphasize is this: The present ballot has absolutely nothing to do with the sale of liquors for medicinal purposes. It is a 'clear-cut' question as to whether the people want liquor sold in the shops for any purpose.

It may be true that the method in use at the present time is not the best that can be devised, but that can be improved on from time to time by amendments to the Act now in force as the growing experience of the Province reveals its weakness, until ultimately a method shall be found that will meet the needs of the situation.

It is necessary to vote X under "No" to No. 4 in order to prevent the re-introduction of the liquor shop with all its attendant evils. When that has been accomplished, we can turn our attention to the task of amending the present Act, in order to find, if possible, a better method than that now in use in dispensing liquors for medicinal purposes.

To vote "Yes" to No. 4 would mean that every woman and man citizen of Ontario would be a partner in the liquor dispensing business and would to a degree be responsible for the evil results that would very likely ensue.

The only way to mark a safe prohibition ballot is to put "X" under NO to question 4 as well as to Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

Yours truly,

W. T. ROGERS,

County President.
