The Parraboro Steamer.

So far the agitation to secure the calling of the Parraboro steamer at this port has been without success. The information that has been obtained from the management of the steamer is to the effect that the contract entered into with the government requires the calling of the boat...

An extended discussion took place in which all the members of the Council took part, the general impression being that means should be taken in the near future to increase the water supply and also secure an increased storage capacity.

By resolution the Council indicated that it favored the boring being undertaken by day's work rather than by contract, and the matter of arranging detail was left with the Water Committee, with instruction to proceed at once and have the work done.

Sixteen candidates presented themselves for this examination. The questions were those of the regular provincial high school entrance papers and identical with those used by the county academies of Nova Scotia. They are sent out by the education office.

An exchange calls to mind another incident where Logd Dundonald's aggressiveness got the better of his respect for authority. At the first camp he attended there was a shortage of rations, and the general order of a larger supply.

It is now known that out of the ill-fated General Secum's passenger list of 1,438 no fewer than 1,042 perished. As the result of an investigation the company's board of directors, the captain and several inspectors, have been arrested pending further enquiry.

Every child in the country needs, at some time or other, a medicine to correct the ills incident to childhood. If Baby's Own Tablets are kept in the house and occasionally given to the little ones they will prevent illness and make the little ones rugged, strong and cheerful.

The provincial Educational Association will meet in Truro August 16th. The following is a partial list of the speakers, together with their subjects: Professor D. A. Murray, of Dalhousie University, Technical Education.

Town Council Meeting.

A special meeting of the Council was held at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, with Mayor DeWitt in the chair and all the Board present, with the Recorder.

The first matter of business discussed was the need of increasing the water supply. The meeting was called in connection with a visit to the reservoir by members of the Council on Monday, when the project of sinking an artesian well to increase the supply was suggested.

The Clerk was instructed to sell certain lots in town for frontage tax in accordance with and as the law directs.

Resolved that the Clerk be instructed to collect all overdue cesspool accounts as per resolution passed May 25, 1904.

Oddfellows' Excursion.

The members of 'Orpheus' Lodge have arranged to have an excursion to Parisboro by the Steamer 'Brunswick' on Thursday of next week.

The boat will leave Wolville on the arrival of the morning train from Kentville, and will return in time for those who attend from Kentville and ports west to catch the evening train home.

New Piano Teacher at Acadia Seminary.

Miss Muriel Iredale, of Lewes, England, who has been chosen to fill the place in the Department of Pianoforte made vacant by the resignation of Miss Churchill, is a graduate of Trinity Hall, Southport, Eng., receiving the Diploma of Licentiate of the Royal Academy of Music, 1897.

In addition to the above mentioned facts enthusiastic press notices of her work from the 'Leipzig' 'Anzeiger' and the 'Neue Nachrichten,' Leipzig, as well as from her professors in the Conservatorium are at hand.

Another who is most intimately acquainted with her work writes in a personal letter, 'Miss Iredale is a sympathetic and attractive player, and shows decided musical taste and ability. She is of a very high Christian character, and has always exercised the most helpful influence upon all those with whom she came in contact.'

Sudden Death on Sunday.

The death of Dr. A. C. Cogswell, of Halifax, occurred on Sunday afternoon at 'Elmley Cottage,' this town.

Dr. Cogswell had been in poor health for three or four years past, but was able to continue his dental practice more or less fully until last autumn. A week ago he came to Wolville, hoping that the change would prove beneficial to his health.

The deceased was a native of Cornwallis, where he was born 70 years ago. He went to the United States and graduated in dentistry, after which he practised that profession there.

Cricket.

Last April a cricket eleven was organized from among the commercial men who travel in the province, which promised to cut quite a figure in sporting circles.

On June 18th the full team managed to get together in Annapolis, where they met the town cricketers, and won a game from them with a score of 61 to 76.
