T. O. Nesting was a business visitor at the Hat.
Mr. Zimmerman passed through here with five head of cattle for the Foster ranch.
School Inspector Brown was in Seven Persons Thursday and Saturday.

The Farmers' Store Meeting was a success. A committee was appointed to take subscriptions for shares, and another meeting appointed for next Saturday at Mr. Leonard's.

Mr. Butler, brother of our operator here, has taken a homestead and is going to try the "shingle life" for a while.

Mrs. Murray and daughter passed through here on Saturday.

Mr. Foster was interviewing Mr. Brand with the intention of buying more cattle.

W. Strand and T. O. Nesting have dissolved partnership in the ranch business and are going it alone now. There are about thirty-five homesteaders expected here in the Spring.

Coleridge Clippings.

Work is still being continued on the new tracks here and altogether seven new lines have been laid to the north of the present main line, of a mile and a quarter each in length. The new section house is finished, as also the water tank, and rapid strides are being made with the asphalt and coal-chutes. The new locomotive office and bunk house is being pushed forward with all haste, and efforts are to be made to have same completed and ready for occupation within the next few weeks.

Mr. John MacCarroll, our genial restaurateur, has rented his premises for six months to two go-ahead men from the States, who are of the right stuff and can foresee the possibilities of the place, and who are willing to pay the price that Johnny put upon the results of his labors. With them to see was to stay and we are pleased to have such men in our burg.

Mr. Fred Gadsden, of Medicine Hat, and friend, were Coleridge visitors Friday.

Six more stalls are to be added to the rounthouse here, says Mr. MacCarroll, who has secured the consent, and work will be started within the next few weeks, the men having already bespoken rooming and boarding accommodation.

Mr. T. M. Babbington, of Medicine Hat, was in our town for a few days Friday.

Enjoyable and pleasant party was given last Thursday evening by Miss Emma Cavan, of the Paradise ranch, Coleridge. Invitations were issued to the number of 100 and the guests began to arrive shortly after 6 p.m., being cordially received by their hostess, who was charmingly attired in a beautiful silk costume of exquisite workmanship, assisted by her brother Mr. H. W. Cavan. An early adjournment was made to the skating grounds where the ice was found to be in perfect condition and was being a lovely moonlight night, the hours till midnight passed all too quickly. Supper was then partaken of, when the usual rush for photographs on the dainty serviettes, retained as a memento of the pleasant evening, was indulged in, after which progressive whist was the order of the evening, until 8 a.m., when several of the fair sex complained of homesickness and the party then broke up with many expressions of satisfaction and thanks for a most enjoyable time.

Among those taking part in the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd, Beers, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mundie, Misses F. G. Harper, Lulu Leppard, Margaret Acheson, Stella Leppard, Laura Leppard, Minnie Acheson, Mrs. Cavan, Messrs. George Jenkins, Floyd Finch, Robt. Acheson, Robt. Cavan, Geo. Harper, Wm. Hull, H. W. Cavan, J. Miller, S. Berwick, Leo. Conlin and R. G. MacFarlane.

The Wanderers and Ramblers played the second game of the series at the rink Thursday night. The Wanderers again defeated the Ramblers by the close score of 1-0. The game was fast at all times. The Ramblers were greatly strengthened by A. Ellis, who played because "Spots" did not turn up. The Wanderers right wing got hurt in practice and had to go in goal and the goal keeper played in the forward line where he was not at home and weakened this line a little. T. Oliver with a brass horn a good deal louder than the one used in the former game, officiated as referee and pleased both sides. The winning goal was scored by W. Irwin.

Church Notes.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Aid of St. John's Presbyterian church was held on Tuesday evening last, the 7th inst.

The officers of 1907 were all re-elected. They are as follows: President, Mrs. Ewart; Vice-President, Mrs. Finlay; Secretary, Mrs. Nicholson; Treasurer, Mrs. Wilson. The total sum of money raised for the year is $775.15, which is considered a very satisfactory amount. Much has been done of late to increase the comfort of the church. The seating accommodation in the gallery was installed some weeks ago, and two chandeliers and thirty-two additional lights have been added, the latter being only temporary in their present form.

The annual missionary meeting was held in St. John's church yesterday afternoon. This evening a Young People's meeting will be held. Next Sunday the Rev. J. W. Morrow will preach on the "Publican's Prayer." After the service the annual teachers' meeting takes place. In the afternoon the books for regular attendance at the Sunday school will be distributed.

Scrap books of cuttings have been omitted from the Sunday school papers and awards will be made for the best. The books being then given over to the General Hospital.

A congregational meeting was held in the East End Presbyterian church on Monday evening Jan. 6, after the prayer service, and it was then decided to change the name from East End to Knox.

On Monday night Jan. 6 the first of the services of union prayer meetings was held in the East End Presbyterian church. A good congregation gathered. The pastor presided, and Rev. Mr. Farrell gave an appropriate address on prayer. At the close of this service the first annual congregational meeting was held. Very encouraging reports were received from each department. Officers were elected for the year. Selecting a name for the young church was an interesting item. Again the Scotch reformer was honored, and the church will hereafter be known as Knox. A most encouraging branch of the work is the Sunday school, which already numbers 75.

Rev. A. McLaren has gone on a holiday trip to Manitoba. Mr. Cameron, of Stratford, will take his work in his absence.

On Sunday last, in St. Patrick's church the Rev. Father Turbux delivered the first of a series of sermons on Creed. Faith, he said, is the keystone of every religion, and is essential to the life even of the man who professes no religion, because Faith is a virtue, a power, that is a perfection, a faculty, and that faculty is and must be a principle of working.

That principle of working is the knowledge of God. As we cannot see God we have to believe in him. He is the starting point of knowledge; the more we know of God, the more powerful is our understanding; our spiritual being is enlarged, is well outlined; by Faith. It is indeed the crowning of our minds—a window through which we look out on the invisible—a wonderful supplement to our mental deficiencies, a broad extension of our spiritual boundaries—a superhuman energy added to the material one we get from Nature. It is the continuation of ourselves in God—the real participation in "the knowledge God has of himself. Faith is an act, it is eye Faith. The indeed is a heavenly light. The celestial vision is God himself; Faith is preparatory to it, and begins it down here. Faith is Glory's morning and Glory is the meridian of Faith. Seen from God's side it is God taking possession of our minds—seen from ours, it is man's mind taking possession of God.

Finally, Faith is a mouth. Everybody knows that Faith makes one speak with surpassing eloquence and indomitable courage and an efficiency triumphing indeed. It is the spirit of apostleship and has changed the face of the world. So we read as the first word of the Creed: "I believe."

The week of prayer of the Baptist church begins tonight. This afternoon at three o'clock the Woman's Circle meets.

Mr. Reid, of Lethbridge, will conduct evangelistic services in the Baptist church beginning Monday next.

The Young People's Society of the Methodist church has planned for a course of Bible study during January. "Missions" will be the subject for February. This society is doing good work and much benefit is anticipated from these studies.

On Sunday last the Rev. A. C. Farrell exchanged pulpits with the Rev. Mr. Dalgleish of Swift Current. Next Sunday the Rev. C. H. Huustis of Red Deer will take the services in the Century Methodist church. On Monday he delivers a popular lecture by the lecture room of the church. Mr. Farrell will be in Red Deer to talk his plan.

The King's Palace, of Century Methodist church, will hold a cake sale, Saturday Jan. 18, at 3 o'clock at Mrs. I. Cosens', 607 Main Street.
