

FERTILIZER

is one of the things which there is no necessity of importing either on account of the price or quality. The latest report covering the year ending March 31st shows that during the preceding twelve months there was imported from the United States goods of all kinds to the amount of over $800,000,000.00, or an average of $2,197,540.00 every day in the year. These figures of course do not cover importations from other countries, which add twenty-five per cent. to these totals.

There can be but three reasons for buying imported goods of any kind. The first of these is that the required goods are not made in Canada, the second is that the imported goods are of better quality and the third the price is more favorable.

Of the above three reasons, not one applies to fertilizer. Fertilizer is made in large quantities in Canada with the manufacturers ready to increase their capacity at the demands of the farmers require it or as the tendency develops to buy "Made in Canada" goods rather than those imported.

The quality of fertilizers made here is up to the highest standard. This is not only based on the claims of the manufacturers but by the official Government analysis of fertilizer collected and analyzed yearly, with the results of these tests published annually in the official reports.

The price of fertilizers, a most important consideration, is the last point and one in which the imported brands show no advantage. If Canadian farmers bought fertilizers on the price lists for 1922 quoted by U. S. Companies, paying exchange, sale tax and surtax, etc., which the Canadian fertilizer manufacturers must pay, the cost delivered would be higher than he can buy "Made in Canada" fertilizers.

The "Made in Windsor, N. S." fertilizers meet the requirements of farmers in supply, quality and price.

We want agents, either dealers or farmers in all territory where we are not now represented.

WOODSTOCK IS TO TAKE NEW CENSUS

There has been much dissatisfaction over the census figures as announced for Woodstock, and the town council has instructed the town manager to arrange for taking a census at an early date. The work will probably be carried out by the Women's Institute. In view of the fact that the increased attendance at the schools is twenty-three per cent over ten years ago, and the census taken by the churches is greatly in excess of the official announcement, the council decided to take the above action.

THE FARMERS' CAMPAIGN FUND

The Official Agent Explains How it Came and How it Went

The following letters recently appearing in The Press are reprinted by request:

To Editor of Press:

Would it not be in order for Mr. Thomas W. Caldwell to give a statement to the public of the funds which he received from the farmers and others, in the last Election Campaign. Thousands of dollars were contributed. It would be interesting to have the names and the amount, and also a statement of disbursements. Did he not promise this and why has it not been forthcoming?

Inquirer.

Woodstock, Nov. 5, 1921.

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 18

To the Editor of The Press:

I noticed in this weeks Press some one enquiring as to what Mr. T. W. Caldwell did with all the money which was collected for his campaign in the Bye-Election two years ago. I just wonder why "Enquirer" is so anxious at this time, since we never heard from him before in spite of the fact that money has flowed rather freely in this constituency in so many elections previous to the Bye-Election. However, we have no hesitation in giving him the facts of the Campaign fund which was raised for the Bye-Election. The money which was raised at that time was collected and distributed by Mr. Caldwell's Official Agent. Mr. Caldwell did not handle that fund, he did, however, pay all of his personal expenses in connection with that campaign, and when all bills were in and it was shown that we were six Hundred Dollars short of having money enough to meet our expenses, Mr. Caldwell gave his cheque for this amount to clear all accounts.

We wish also to inform enquirers that the campaign account was audited by a competent Auditor, and a complete statement of all moneys received with the names of all contributors and a detailed statement of all moneys expended, in the election. This statement was sent out to the Secretary of all the Branches of the United Farmers of N. B. in Carleton and Victoria Counties. This statement was brought before the different branches to be affirmed by them. This statement showed that not one cent was expended in that campaign for the purpose of buying votes or supplying booze or cigars or sinners or in any way to corrupt the electorate.

Mr. Caldwell in accepting the Nomination in the Bye-Election said that "if one cent is used except for the legitimate expenses of this election I will resign my seat" and Victoria and Carleton would have another vacancy on their hands. This had the effect of cleaning up the corrupt mess into which politics had been foundering in Victoria and Carleton. Further, we are ready at any time in this present campaign to open our books to anyone to show where our campaign fund is coming from and what it is being expended for.

Official Agent.

TO STOP SMUGGLING FURS

In view of the number of complaints reaching the Chief Game Warden of the province regarding the custom of trappers and others smuggling pelts across the boundary for sale in the State of Maine, it has been decided by the authorities of Maine and New Brunswick to co-operate in suppressing this smuggling.

The game laws of New Brunswick provide a penalty of $100 or 30 days jail for conviction under this section where resident trappers smuggle pelts which have had no royalty paid on them and for which no license has been taken out. A resident trapper who has pelts for sale outside the province is required to take out a license and to have the fur inspected, stamped and taxed. Pelts may be sold to a resident licensed dealer without stamping and without the license.

A greater interest has been created in McGill University through the special campaign inaugurated last fall particularly among the graduates. At this campaign over five million dollars were subscribed to carry on the work of old McGill, and to supply additional buildings and equipment commensurate with the growth of the University. This increased interest is duly reflected by the large numbers who are coming to attend the success of this outstanding event in the history of a great university so favorably known in every quarter of the globe.

Professor Cyrus MacMullin has written a history of the university entitled "McGill and its Stories," which S. B. Gundy, of the Oxford University Press, Toronto, has published in time for the Reunion. This contains extracts from many historic records published for the first time and gives a wonderfully interesting account of the progress of education in Lower Canada and Quebec within the last hundred years.

The Foundation of Health is Habit

"For every man who has lost his life by what he did in the last five minutes a hundred men have died because of what they had been doing in the last five years."

Life is made up of habits. There is the health habit. And also the habit of ill-health. It is surprising what a lot of people have developed the latter.

What hosts of women have bilious spells and bilious headaches about every so often, year in and year out, and never think of correcting the action of the liver, and thereby removing the cause of this oft-recurring trouble.

They have formed the habit of being bilious.

Many are the men, indoor workers as well as those who spend their time in the open, who frequently suffer from backache, and yet neglect to get the kidneys in healthful condition.

It is the backache habit which is robbing life of its pleasures for them.

These are dangerous habits.

Some people live for many years with their systems poisoned by impurities—they live and suffer.

Others soon develop Bright's disease, diabetes, high blood pressure or hardening of the arteries, and quickly have their lives snuffed out.

The greatest rule of health is "daily movement of the bowels."

This is also the most valuable of health habits.

To get back to this rule, to awaken the sluggish action of the liver and kidneys, to cleanse the system and purify the blood, there is nothing like Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

By using one pill a dose at bedtime two or three times a week, just as often as is necessary to keep the bowels regular, you will in a few weeks restore the healthful action of these filtering and excretory organs

Kidney Trouble

Mr. George Stevenson, Rounthwaite, Man., writes:

"For seven months I suffered from kidney trouble, backache and dizzy turns, and could get no relief. My back ached so severely that I could not turn in bed, and finally I had to quit work. One day I received a copy of Dr. Chase's Almanac through the mail, and after reading how highly Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills were recommended, I gave them a trial. I had tried various other pills and remedies with no effect whatever, but immediately I started using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I got relief, and two boxes made me well."
