IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

Opening of Parliament—Text of the Queen's Speeches—Cheers for Gladstone.

LONDON, Jan. 27.—The scenes at the opening of parliament, to-day, were duller than usual. The crowds about the building showed little if any enthusiasm, and members evidently are certain as regards the future.

Gladstone reached the house at 4.30, and was greeted with great enthusiasm by the people all the way from his residence. Parnell entered the house and reached his seat unobserved.

The following is the

QUEEN'S SPEECH:

Relations with all the foreign powers are friendly.

Affairs in south-eastern Europe are still unsettled, but I do not apprehend that any disturbance of European peace will result from the unadjusted controversies which have arisen in that region. While deploring the events which compelled Prince Alexander to retire from the Bulgarian throne, I have not judged it expedient to interfere in the proceedings for the election of his successor until they reach a stage at which my assent is required by the Berlin treaty.

A substantial advance has been made towards an assurance of external and internal tranquility in Egypt.

Operations in Burmah have been conducted with bravery and skill for the purpose of extirpating the brigandage which has grown during recent years of misgovernment. I entertain a confident hope that a general pacification of the country will be effected during the present season.

Commercial treaties have been concluded with Greece and Roumania.

The condition of Ireland still requires your anxious attention. Grave crimes in that country have happily been rarer the last few months than during a similar part of the preceding year. But the relations between the owners and occupiers of the land, which in the early autumn exhibited signs of improvement, have since been seriously disturbed in some districts by organized attempts to incite the latter class to combine against the fulfillment of their legal obligations. The efforts of the government to cope with this evil have been seriously impeded by the difficulties incident to the method at present prescribed by statute for dealing with such offences. Your early attention will be called to proposals for the reform of legal procedure which seem necessary to secure prompt and efficient administration of the criminal law.

The report of the commission on the operation of the recent acts dealing with the tenure and purchase of land will shortly be laid before you, and will doubtless receive from you the early and careful attention which the serious importance of the subject demands. Bills for the improvement of local government in England and Scotland will be laid before you. Should the circumstances render it possible, they will be followed by a measure dealing with the same subject in Ireland.

A bill for improving and cheapening the process of private bill legislation for England, Scotland and Ireland will be submitted.

You will be asked to consider measures, having for their object the removal of hindrances which exist to the cheap and rapid transfer of land, to facilitate the provision of allotments for small householders and to provide for the readier sale of glebe lands.

A bill for altering the mode of levying tithes in England and Wales will be submitted.

With regard to Scotland you will be asked to consider measures for the reform of the universities, for completing the recent legislation as to the secretary for Scotland and for amending the procedure of the criminal courts.

Measures dealing with the regulation of railway rates and preventing the fraudulent use of merchandize marks will be brought under your consideration.

Mr. Smith said the discussion of procedure measures would be subject only to such interruptions as might be necessary for the conduct of urgent business.

WHY CHURCHILL RESIGNED.

Lord Randolph Churchill entered upon an explanation of the reasons which led him to resign the chancellorship of the exchequer. He dwelt upon the statement that he resigned because he was unable to acquiesce in the government's army and navy estimates on account of their extravagance, from his point of view, having pledged himself to a policy of retrenchment and economy.

THE CANADIAN FISHERIES.

Gladstone, referring to the Canadian fisheries question, said he trusted that the papers on the subject would speedily be presented to the house. Gladstone said he thought that England and Scotland very justly complained of the Irish monopoly of time of parliament, but he feared there was small likelihood of a remedy being found. He was ready to bet ten to one, though it was hardly likely the wager would be accepted, that the local government question would not be settled this session.

THE PARNELLITES,

after the reading of the speech held a conference and discussed the advisability of offering an amendment to address in reply to it. They adjourned without coming to a decision.

That Police Court Civil Case.

To the Editor of THE GLEANER:—

SIR,—In your last issue you refer to the case in the police court in which the plaintiff claimed $15 and when the suit was finished the jury gave the defendant a verdict for $25. The plaintiff's claim was for goods sold and delivered and sworn to by his clerks. The defendant's bill, $51, was made up of items such as the following: To use of light waggon $6. It was sworn to by plaintiff that he never used the waggon but once and that he had lent the defendant his waggon several times. Notwithstanding this the jury allowed the whole of the trumped up bill which the maker admitted he kept in his head for nearly two years and never once hinted that he had any claim until the morning of the trial. I have no desire to discuss this question in the press as it will be reviewed before one of the judges before it is finally settled.

You stated that the jurymen received each 20 cents, or a little less than 7 cents per day. Judging by the verdict given it was more than they were worth. I am

Yours respectfully,
JUSTICE.

Fredericton, Jan. 24th.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" perfectly and permanently cures those diseases peculiar to females. It is tonic and nervine, effectually allaying and curing those sickening sensations that effect the stomach and heart, through reflex action. The backache and "dragging-down" sensations all disappear under the strengthening effects of this great restorative. By druggists.

QUEBEC LIBERAL.

The Tory Government Defeated in the Quebec Legislature.

Taillon Resigns and Mr. Mercier Called Upon to Form a Government.

OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—The defeat of Taillon's government by ten majority in the Quebec legislature, and election of Marchand as speaker, on Mercier's motion, dumbfounded tories here. Taillon's motion to adjourn was defeated, and Mercier's carried.

Faucher, the conservative candidate for speaker, was defeated on the following division:—

Yeas—Baldwin, Beauchamp, Blanchet, Caron, Casgrain, Charlebois, Cormier, Deschenes, (Temiscouta), Desjarnins, Dorais, Duplessis, Flinn, Hall, Johnson, Lapointe, LeBlanc, Lynch, Martin, (Bonaventure), McIntosh, Nantel, Owens, Pickard, Poupart, Robertson, Spencer, Taillon, Villeneuve. Total—27.

Nays—Bazinet, Bernatchez, Bisson, Bourbonnais, Boyer, Brassard, Cameron, Cardin, David, Lechene, (Lelslet), Dubamel, Forest, Gagnon, Girouard, Glads, Lafontaine, Laliberte, Larcau, Larochelle, Lemieux, Lussier Marchand, Martin, (Rimouski), McShane, Mercier, Morin, Murphy, Pilon, Rinfret, Robidoux, Rochelean, Shehyn, Sylvester, Tessier, Trudel, Turcotte. Total—36.

Marchand was then elected by 27 (Faucher not voting) to 35 (Marchand of course not voting.)

Mr. Taillon then moved an adjournment, which was defeated by 28 to 35, Marchand not voting

Mr. Mercier then moved an adjournment which was carried by a majority of 7.

Mr. Taillon said he would not make any announcement as to the governments resignation till the speech from the throne was voted on.

QUEBEC, Jan. 27.—Premier Taillon has resigned and Mr. Mercier, the liberal leader, has been called upon to form a cabinet.

An Ottawa despatch says that the effect of the test vote in Quebec is to create a panic in the tory ranks, and bets are freely offered, but receive few takers, that the result of the overthrow of the tory government in Quebec will be to increase the liberal chances in eastern Ontario. The liberals confidently expect to carry nine out of sixteen constituencies, east of Frontenac in Ontario, as against one now held, and they will have a good fighting chance in three more. Ottawa city and Hamilton having four members between them, are both expected to go liberal by heavy majorities. The growth of liberalism in Ottawa city is the most marvellous feature of the election campaign here, and astounds all tory calculations, and the same is true of the entire eastern district. Revised liberal calculations place Blake's majority in Ontario from 15 to 20, and from 20 to 25 in Quebec.

CARLETON LIBERALS,

Unanimous Nomination of Mr. Fred H. Hale.

WOODSTOCK, Jan. 27.—There was a grand rally of liberals at the liberal convention in the Town Hall this afternoon. The staunch old reformers of this grand old liberal county came from far and near to honor with their presence the people's candidate, Frederick H. Hale, of Grafton. The new comer on the political arena is none other than one of Carletop's most worthy sons. Having been an extensive lumberman, he has travelled throughout the length and breadth of the county, and has thus become intimately acquainted with the people's interests. Mr. David Irvine, the late representative of this county, having long ago signified his intention of resigning from public life, the unanimous vote of the convention this afternoon nominated Mr. Hale as his successor. During the meeting great enthusiasm was manifested and such an unanimity of feeling has seldom, or perhaps never existed on a like occasion here. On the countenances of those present to-day might be seen that determination and well assured confidence, which brooks not defeat. The nomination having been duly honored with the loud and oft repeated plaudits of the meeting, the nominee rose and addressed the electors in a sound matter-of-fact speech. He was followed by Dr. Atkinson, R. K. Ketchum, M. P. P., J. S. Leighton, Jas. Watts, S. B. Appleby, Mr. Harmon, and several others. After having appointed the requisite committees for the several parishes the meeting adjourned.

The conservative convention at Woodstock was attended by a small number of electors. Dr. Connell was teadered the nomination but declined. Major Vince was next asked and he requested further time, until to-day, to decide. Geo. W. White was present at the meeting. This is his year to be on the tory side—a sure sign of disaster.

HORSE NOTES.

Two Handsome Horses that are Coming to the Front.

King Charles, by Sir Charles, is a beautiful colt, showing high quality and as graceful a contour as could be desired. If a fault could be found; it is that he is too handsome. His legs and feet are well placed under him, and his poise is good. His stroke, when moving, is bold and far-striding. For some time we have been impressed with the belief that Sir Charles is destined to achieve an honorable distinction amongst trotting sires. The performance of Maud C. trotting a mile in a hotly contested race in 2.45, as a four-year-old, has added strength to it.

Morrismont, by Blackmont, is an elegant colt. He has been broken to harness and is very satisfactory in gait and behavior, and has a natural three minute gift of speed, that with cultivation is expected to tell the pleasant story. His action appears rather excessive for a performer of the highest order, but displays an elasticity and flexion usually liked in a sire.

For more than forty years, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been successfully prescribed in cases of consumption. This medicine always affords great relief in pulmonary diseases. Ask your druggist for it.
