Clean Hay.

The feeding of clean hay to cattle is a matter of considerable importance. Still very few farmers think much about it until they or their neighbors meet with some loss which forces the truth upon their minds. A while ago one of our acquaintances lost a fine ox. The animal died suddenly and without any apparent cause. An examination of the body cause. An examination of the body revealed the fact that he had swal lowed a piece of steel wire which originally belonged to a hoop-skirt, originally belonged to a hoop-skirt, which had penetrated one of the PUNGS AND SLEIGHS! lungs, and this caused his death .-The wire had been put in his manger with some hay, and proved very un profitable material for feeding. And now comes a report from Kentucky that a farmer had lost three valuable cows from the effects of poison. A few tobacco leaves were mixed with the hay. The cow ate both leaves and hay, and soon died. Many and hay, and soon died. Many cases can also be found in which the results though not nearly as bad as SLEIGHS & PUNGS the above are decidedly unpleasant. IN ALL THE MODERN STYLES. We remember that when a boy at home, one winter the butter which tended to.
