

MUSIC AND DRAMA

brief. The repertoire of the club will include Brahms' "The Dances of Darius," Elgar's "Lullaby and Dance" from the "Bavarian Highlands," an exceptionally dainty part song by Blumenthal, "Gather the Rosebuds," McEwen's "Let the Kanakin Clink" and "Jesu Duleis," from old Italian music by Vittoria. The choir has better material than that of last year, and Mr. Bruce Carey, their talented conductor, is confident that their singing will be an advance on even last year's standard.

At Bennett's Theatre.

Manager Driscoll has an exceedingly well balanced bill at Bennett's this week, and beginning to-night patrons of the home of all-star vaudeville in Hamilton will be a good brand of the novelty production. The variety was never more pronounced and the quality of the bill is unsurpassed. "Cissie's Dream," the pantomime act which Fred Walton and his company of English artists will present as the feature of the bill, should prove a very enjoyable act. It is entirely original, and when its presentation lies in the hands of some competent people the result is obvious. Fred Walton has a reputation which is possessed by few vaudeville artists, and of genuine simplicity the act which he is presenting is the favorite. His portrayal of child life in its most beautiful and sympathetic state is its strong point. Lind, the mysterious female impersonator, is confidently expected to be the laughing sensation of the week. He has a good act, and it will be worthy of note if it does make it in this city. George Felix and the Barrys should make a big hit with the clever comedy sketch, "The Boy Next Door." They are original comedians and in this, their latest creation, they have an admirable vehicle for the exercise of their ability. The Kiteman Japs are said to be a wonderful troupe of jugglers and their performance may be counted on to please. Joe Deming, monologist; Frank Whatman, the dancing violinist; Johnson and Wells, and Charlotte Coste and Little Sunflower will contribute their share to a very pleasing bill.

George Hall Coming.

The popular comedian George F. Hall will be seen at the Grand on Thursday night in his new musical comedy success, "I'm Married Now." He will be supported by a large party of pretty boys. Mr. Hall is said to have the funniest role of his career in this latest piece. Seats will be on sale to-morrow. Mr. Hall's work in "The Ragged Hero" and other successes stamp him as a comedian out of the ordinary.

"The Burgomaster."

Fresh from his phenomenal engagement at the Garrick Theatre, Chicago, comes Pixley & Luder's merry musical masterpiece to the Grand on Saturday afternoon and evening. Gus Weinburg, who originated the name part, and by the way a warm local favorite, will be welcomed as "The Burgomaster." In his long and varied career, Mr. Weinburg has never had a part which fitted him to such a nicety as Peter Van Stuyvesant in this merry musical. Ruth White will be remembered as the original Willie Van Astorville, and in this year's production, it is exceedingly clever. "There is Only One Street—That's Broadway," is one of Ruth White's song hits. Seats will be on sale on Thursday.

Ben Greet's Performances.

The Ben Greet Players returned to the city on Saturday and presented, at the Grand, "Everyman" and "Macbeth." A fair-sized audience witnessed "Everyman," which is recognized as the best of the XV. century morality plays. The play is a decided novelty as a stage presentation, and profoundly impressed the audience. It was announced as having been first played in 1480, and the language and methods are markedly medieval. In those dim and distant days, when the priests could make little or no religious impression on their flocks, they gave them morality plays, to visually impress them in preparing to shuffle off this mortal coil. Judging from "Everyman," such presentations ought not to have failed in their object.

With the stage set as the cloisters of a cathedral and preceded by music both vocal and instrumental, well designed to fit the mind for what follows, "Everyman" depicts man's progress to the grave, with the disappointments and delights that come to human kind on the way. God bids Death tell Everyman to prepare for his last pilgrimage. He seeks to beg off, but is unsuccessful, and he appeals in turn to Fellowship, Kindred, Cousin, and Riches, but they all desert him. He then appeals to Good Deeds, who consents to accompany him. Good Deeds and Knowledge help him materially, and he is joined by Beauty, Strength, Discretion and Five Wits. As the journey progresses, they too desert Everyman; but Good Deeds and Knowledge remain with him to the last. The play ends with a Messenger pointing the moral.

The play was excellently given, the quaint language and strange "business" being followed with strict regard to the text. All the parts were admirably brought out and the costumes were all that could be desired. Following the Greet custom, no names of players were given on the programme.

Opportunity for Musicians.

An exhibition, entitling its holder to free musical tuition for not less than two years at the Royal Academy of Music or the Royal College of Music, London, England, will in future be offered by the associated board annually to candidates in the Dominion. This exhibition will be awarded on the recommendation of the board's examiner to the candidate showing the greatest musical promise, if of sufficient ability.

The associated board has also decided to offer annually gold and silver medals to candidates in the Dominion—a gold medal to the candidate obtaining the highest honor marks in each grade of the local centre examinations, and a silver medal to the next honors candidate in each grade, provided that such honors candidates obtain at least 125 marks.

Further particulars can be obtained from M. Waring Davis, secretary, McGill University Conservatorium of Music, Montreal, or from James Muir, secretary, the Associated Board, 15 Bedford Square, London, W. C., England.

Toronto Musicians Pleased.
E. R. Parkhurst in the Toronto Globe: I am glad to be in a position to state, on official information, that the Elgar Choir of Hamilton have definitely decided to give a concert in Toronto at Massey Hall at Feb. 28. One may predict for them a most cordial reception from the musical community of Toronto. And, to continue predicting, one may safely say that the lovers of music here, even accustomed as they are to fine choral singing, will be astonished at the finished work of the Hamilton organization. The choir has engaged as their star artist for the occasion Mme. Sem-

The winners tackled well, getting the man low on nearly every occasion, while the easterners invariably tackled high. The game was played on a very muddy field. Long runs were numerous, considering the condition of the field. Cronan of P. C. C. pulling off one for 55 yards and Wedd of the same team made many runs for good gains. The latter's playing was the feature of the game. Prior, for Brockville, punted splendidly, and White took off some good runs.

By winning this game Parkdale go into the finals with Hamilton Y. M. C. A., the game to be played next Saturday at Diamond Park, Toronto. The teams lined up as follows:
Parkdale—Back, Taylor; halves, Wedd, Cronan and Killaly; quarter, J. Disette; scrum, Duncan; second and third, Addis; wings, Scully, Ross, McLean, Peterson, Thomson and A. Disette.

Brockville—Back, Mackie; halves, White, Price and Stack; quarter, Hayward; scrum, Hilliard, Bessman and Dailey; wings, Symon, Walhausen, Clow, Hough, Donahue and Ringer.

LADIES' LONG WALK.

A New Departure in Athletics in Toronto.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—A new departure in athletics was tried on Saturday afternoon, when the first ten-mile race for young ladies, conducted by the Toronto Star, took place. Eighty-four young women started in the contest, and Miss Rosemond Dunn, of 141 Park View Avenue, proved to be the one who won the prize. The race was made a finished first, and had secured such a good lead that over a minute passed before Miss Madie Peel, who came in second, crossed the line.

HARRIERS FAILED.
On Saturday afternoon the Y. M. C. A. harriers in a relay race around the bay, tried to lower the record of the Herald race, but failed. The team was made up of Fred Crocker, Walter Lewis, Herbert Smith, Fred Cane, George McCulloch, Stanley Hunt, James Moss, Edward Barclay and A. Wilson. Charles E. Cameron was the starter and the race was managed by W. Kennedy. H. Taylor, A. Wilson and E. Barclay.

A PAPER CRASE.
The first country-run of the season for the boys of Highfield School was held on Friday afternoon. The race was held on a very muddy field, and the conditions were not ideal. Thirty boys took part, and all finished in good style. The winners were A. L. Carpenter and M. A. Vallance, who laid the trail along the bay, and the mountain going west. The first senior pack took fifty minutes. The first home was G. K. Fraser, followed at an interval of about fifteen yards. A bunch consisting of K. A. Murray, G. Matheson, C. W. Gibson, and J. A. Turner. Others who finished well-up were: A. Higgins, J. D. Scott, J. C. Kennedy, and F. C. Lane.

The Intermediate, and Junior packs went off together some time after the seniors. H. Washington won by twenty yards, in 1 hour 13 minutes. The next in was S. Nicholson, H. Hay, J. Merick, R. Fitch, H. Vardoppe, and S. Dunn, who were separated by equal intervals of about fifteen yards.

BENNINGS' OPENING.

Guardian, at 15 to 1, Won the Bladenburg Handicap.

Benings, Nov. 18.—With ideal weather, a good crowd, a fine card and fast track, the Washington Jockey Club began its autumn meeting at the Benings course Saturday. The day furnished excellent sport. There were six races on the programme, and good betting. All the races were won by the local horses. The first race was won by Guardian, at 15 to 1, easily won the Bladenburg Handicap. The second race was won by the local horse, and the third by the local horse. The fourth race was won by the local horse, and the fifth by the local horse. The sixth race was won by the local horse.

RACE TRACK BETTING.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—Inspector Archibald, of the Toronto police force, who assumes the responsibility for the proceedings against bookmaking at Woodbine, which came to a farcical end in the Court of Appeal last week, secured an interview on Saturday that, as the law allowed betting on race courses in Canada, he was going to have the law changed.

I have no doubt that strong pressure will be brought to bear upon the Government at the next session of Parliament to have legislation passed so as to remedy this strange state of affairs. Why, the Kempton Park decision, which has been the basis of the present judgment is based, upon a conviction gained on actions which were much less harmful to the community than those at the Woodbine. Both the present decision and previous judgments make it imperative that legislation be secured as soon as possible to cover the point.

Possibly the inspector may be able to accomplish what he seeks, but, in the opinion of a sportsman who has had something to do with the legislation, it is doubtful if he will be able to do so.

There have been forty-two games with 1-0 scores, McGinnity having the distinction of winning the longest of them.

do with the legislation in this matter, the chance is a very small one. "It is not likely," said he, "that Parliament will abdicate its functions, or turn them over to a Toronto policeman. This is not a Toronto affair, you must understand, and the activities of a Toronto police official will weigh very little with the gentlemen of the Senate and House of Commons or the Dominion of Canada. They will probably think they are better qualified to make the laws of the nation than he is, and certainly they are elected by the people for that purpose, while the Toronto policeman is not elected on any subject. It does not seem reasonable that what has been the law of the land for many years, and the operation of which in all that period has never brought forth the least objection from any of the 500 communities in which there are tracks, would be repealed on the application of a subordinate police official in Toronto. I know Parliament too well to entertain that idea. John Smith, who is not a member of Parliament, but who is a member of the law-making body, has been elected a member of the House of Commons, and a Senator.

HOCKEY RINK
To Be Erected in Beamsville at Once.

Beamsville, Nov. 18.—(Special).—From present prospects Beamsville will have an ice rink, and hockey team, this winter. It is the intention to secure the old Drill Hall, where a fine, large sheet of ice can be secured. A local promoter went out on Saturday afternoon to secure two hundred dollars, in shares of ten dollars each, to start the enterprise, and in a few hours had raised a hundred more. Beamsville has an interesting hockey record, and there is some of the old splendid material yet at hand. A meeting of the stockholders will be held as soon as some definite word is received from the Militia Department.

It is not very likely, from the present outlook, that Grimsby will have either an ice rink or a hockey team this coming season.

A meeting of all interested in roller hockey has been called for to-morrow evening at the Britannia Roller Rink, for the purpose of forming a local league.

London, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Leonard Barber, who recently investigated the condition of shop assistants in England for the American Retailers' Association, declares that the girl behind the counter in England is patient and obliging and greatly superior in every way to her American sister. It is stated that a great change has shortly take place in American shops, and that they will be remodelled on English lines. Mrs. Barber criticized the English shops on some points. She said the counters were left almost bare and the methods of paying for purchases were very primitive.
