A MRE in Portland, Me., on Monday, burned out several firms on Commercial Street, and along the wharves. Loss about $400,000. for use on the P. E. I. Ratiway. Two more ar yet to arrive. WE direct the attention of the Electors of the First Legislative Council District King's County to the card of the Hon. Mr. Bolger. It has the right ring about it.

THE Merchants Bank of P. E. I. has closed its Georgetown branch. We are informed that Mr. Mc Leod takes charge of the Amherst branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

THE first examination in Chariottetown under the Civil Service Act, began yesterday in the Legislative Council Chamber. Nine candidates are attending. Mr. Montgomery, Superintendant of Education, is the Examiner.

BONA FIDE spirits are rarely visible, but on Queen Street we have "Rhoda," the liv-ing, breathing, speaking woman, whose body has for four years been mouldering in the silent dust, &c.

Our thanks are due the kind friends in th country, who have taken great pains in for-warding us subscription lists. Such courtesy is highly appreciated by newspaper men.

A TROT will take place to-morrow on Upton Park. There are many entries of first-class horses. The leading feature of the day will be a grand handleap race, a new departure in the sporting circles of P. E. Island, and which promises to be very exciting. It alone is well worth seeing. A FIRE occurred in St. John yesterday morn ing in Mr. F. Beverly's hardware store, Germain Cause unknown The heaviest losers are J. J. Kaye, owner of the building; John Beck, produce dealer; and R.
