THE GOOD OLD TIMES.
I wish the fashions were the same As thirty years ago; I can't imagine what should make The tailor charge them so.
When I was in my youth, I made A coat of limespun do.
And though it very fine to have My hair tied in a queue.
And in those days our breeches were All buckled at the knee; And silver buckles would insure The best of company;
Our beavers were of conely shape,
And kept off sun and rain—Oh how I wish those broad brim hats Would come in vogue again!
I'm troubled with a half a yard Of cloth about my feet;
My coat is made so very small,
The lappets will hardly meet;
The dollar eves on hand,
And shoes must have square toes—Where the fashion will arrive at last,
The tailor only knows.
The dandies of the present day Have waist-coats all of gold—You'd think their monstrous pocket-books Were filled with wealth untold!
My father wore a silver watch,
And wore a good steel chain,
And well I recollect his great wit Old power-headed cane.
He owned a large and thrifty farm Of wood and meadow land, And always had a plenty of
The dollar eves on hand.
I guess some dandy friends of mine, Would find it rather hard To pay for coats like mine—At two pounds ten per yard!
But as for me, I wish I had No other dollars back;
I'd recollect my father's ways,
And tread the same old track, I never do I have done, Risk hundreds on a bet, Nor be obliged as to cry, "Clean pockets here to let!"
INDIAN COURTSHIP.—Kah-ze-zah-ze-hah, the Indian Chief, recently in describing the peculiarities of an Indian life, remarked that among the tribes of the West there were very curious ceremonies connected with courtship and marriage. One way of getting a wife was as follows:— When a young Indian falls in love with any of the daughters of the village, he would go and sit down within a few yards of her, keeping a strict silence all the while; in a few minutes he would get up and go away; this he would do six or seven times coming nearer to her every time.— At last he sits by her side, and if she makes no movement of displeasure, then he has won. He sits by her several times in this manner, and at last, upon the question, by putting his hand on her hand, and she accepts him by placing her hand over the other's. All this time he takes care not to say a word, and she likewise; but after the celebration is complete, then the words of "honey" are applied and they soon become man and wife.

European.
ENGLAND.
The returns of the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the October quarter have been published. The customs duties for the quarter ending the 31st inst., exhibit a decrease of £153,211. The excise has increased £185,000; stamps about £225,000; property tax £21,000; and post office revenue £190,000. And the increase in the past quarter, taking the whole income, is £214,113, whilst the total increase of the year is £235,591. The increase in the exports of the country during the first eight months of the present year amounts to £7,570,008. The exportation of cotton manufactures for the last eight months has increased in the ratio of 25 per cent, and cotton yarns 33 per cent.
The papers have nearly ceased to chronicle the ravages of the cholera.
IRELAND.
A faint effort is being made to revive the political excitement of the country. Constitution Hall has been opened—letters of adhesion, as of old have been read from the chair, and £25 5d of rent collected, John O'Connell is of course the principal.
COMMERCIAL SUMMARY.
LIVERPOOL, Oct. 13, 1849.
If we except the great excitement which has prevailed in the cotton market, business during the last week has not been active.
The money market is liberally sustained, and there is a moderate amount of money easy.
The corn markets are firm, and prices, if anything, have advanced tendency; nevertheless, the transactions going forward are by no means extensive.
The produce markets, both here and in London, continue to receive large supplies, and for most descriptions of goods there has been a moderate inquiry. In cured provisions a moderate amount of business has been transacted; prices of most articles being firm.
The cotton market has been much excited, and on Monday when the Europa's advices were known, prices immediately advanced 1d per lb. and both spinners and speculators purchased to a large extent.
There is more firmness in the grain market, and in the course of the week prices have slightly advanced. Indian corn is quoted at 25s to 26s 6d per quarter for white, and 27s to 28s per quarter for yellow. Flour is not so altered in value, being quoted at 23s 6d for Western and Philadelphia; 19s to 21s for New Western; 21s to 25s for Ohio; old sour is worth 21s to 21s 6d per bbl. Wheat was held at 4s 9d to 6s 9d per bbl.
I LOVE TO LIVE.
"I love to live," said a sprightly boy,
As he gaily played with his new-bought toy;
And a merry laugh went echoing forth, From a bosom filled with joyous mirth.
"I love to live," said a lover true;
Who gentle smiles well might give you;
I have shared hard a world's life with you; I have found it but an easy name!
"I love to live," said a happy sire, As his children neared the wifery fire;
For his heart was cheered to see them play,
And he almost wined himself a day.
"I love to live," said an aged man, Who such words would never say again;
The old man was again a child.
And ever thus in all this fallen world,
Is the banner of hope to the brave unrolled;
With love and hope, and life on high,
Can a mortal ever love to die.

THE POTATO CROP.—The European Times contains a report of the unfortunate appearance of the potatoes in Ireland.
"We feel unable to conceal, by our silence, that a sudden and a very rapid decay, similar to that which occurred in previous years, has taken place in the potatoes of the late plantings. The early sorts have escaped. We have before us the most unquestionable proof that a serious change has taken place in the roots; but while the prices continue low we cannot recede by the celebration of the result of our search, and possibly low prices and undoubted abundant. The alarm has been sounded in all the Irish journals; and as far as our own experience extends, the potatoes seemed more and more tainted every day."
NEWS.
The French Government have built or have now in progress of construction, 35 iron steam vessels of various classes.
The Commissioners on drunkenness in Great Britain, estimate the value of labor lost through intemperance annually at $200,000,000.
A new line of steamers, to ply between Liverpool and the Mediterranean, has been projected. The first of the line, the Bosphorus, is now ready for sea.
One hundred and fifty tons of iron have been landed at Liverpool from North America. In quality it is superior to the field of Staffordshire, and peculiarly adapted for conversion into steel.
Royal marriages are much upon the tapis at present. The Emperor of Austria is to marry a Saxon Princess, and Prince George of Saxony, is to be united to a Prussian Princess.
Miss Frances T. Clark, of Weston, Rhode Island, lately received $1,500 damages and costs against Otis Pendleton, of Stonington, Conn., for a breach of promise of marriage.
The streets of New York are crowded with distressed emigrants, and the almhouse is overflowing with the same class of inhabitants.
The wife of Andrew Thompson, a machinist at Trenton, New Jersey, has fallen heir to $2,000,000 by the death of a relative in England.
The microscope shows that each leaf of a tree has a herd of insects grazing upon it like oxen in a meadow.
An editor down east has seen the man who made his own business.
We feel it our duty to warn our readers against the receipt of bills, issued by a concern styling itself "The Farmers' Joint Stock Banking Company." The seat of its operations, is said to be Buffalo, but the merchants of that city, in a notice published in a late number of the Commercial Advertiser, announce their want of confidence in its stability, and their determination to refute its notes, until they are satisfied of its safety and soundness.—Long Point Advocate.

EMIGRANTS.—The Brookville Statesman—Oglethorpe's paper—says that a large number of the people of the Johnstown District are leaving for Iowa. No wonder. Who would live in the vicinage of a gang of self-declared Pirates.—Long Point Advocate.
CANADIAN ANNEXATION.
We recommend the following remarks from the New York Herald to the perusal of such Annexationists as have any patriotism or self-respect left.—Globe.
One of the Canadian journals, opposed to the annexation of Canada to the United States, takes the ground that Great Britain will not consent to separation, either with a view to independence and the formation of an antagonistic nation to the U. States, or with the prospect of annexation to the republic; and, therefore, it must not be tho't of. It assumes, also, that if the Canada were fully prepared to demand a separation, it is probable that requests of any kind might be done to prevent it, in the part of England, they would gain their end; and although the President of the U. States might issue a proclamation, as Gen. Taylor has done in the case of the threatened expedition designed to assist the Cubans, still thousands of sympathizers would cross the frontier from this country, to assist them in their struggle.
Now, we can assure our Canadian cotem-porary that he is entirely mistaken in the conclusion to which he has arrived in regard to receiving sympathy from the U. States.
It is very certain that the United States will never solicit the Canadians to annex themselves to this republic, under circumstances whatever. But while we assert this, we are willing, on the other hand, to say, that if the Canadians wish on some future time procure the consent of Great Britain to be annexed to the United States, we will, when that consent shall have been obtained, and on their solicitation and earnest request, take the question into consideration, and if we can adjust some preliminary arrangements concerning our domestic relations, satisfactorily to the varied interests of the country, we will allow them to come in and partake of the great political blessings we enjoy. The first thing to be obtained by Canada to be annexed to the United States, will be that consent shall have been obtained, and on their solicitation and earnest request, take the question into consideration, and if we can adjust some preliminary
