Just at this critical period a very serious responsibility rests upon the electorate of this loyal old Colony of the Crown. I do not think it was wise or guaranteed by any hope whatever of public good to give Sir E. P. Morris the Premiership when he obtained it four years ago, but sometimes men will only learn what they ought or ought not to do by their errors. Our people are a confiding people and are perhaps too readily swayed by false election cries and campaign tricks and bogus promises which are usually followed by scornful rebuffs when the emergency has subsided and the designing, grasping, selfish officials have attained their nefarious ends. I feel that I cannot speak strongly enough on the present occasion, when I calmly review the outrageous disregard for the public mind and the public weal shown by the present Government during the past four years. By the best thinking minds in this country to-day it is regarded as nothing better than a

Burlesque on Government and a Menace to the Public Good to have Sir E. P. Morris succeed to the important position of a statesman whose superior would be difficult to find in any part of the world. It is not by any means too much to say that Sir Robert's superior qualification put the present Government for a renewed term at bay, immeasurable distance beneath him, not only in political, but in social ethics as well, and he is the man the people are looking to to-day to fight for their rights against an oppressive, squandering and Incompetent Crowd of Plenteers and Grabbals who are Simply Feathering their own Nests.

Show me one man among them who is capable of interpreting the international relations and claims of the Colony before any tribunal constituted for the purpose, when our colonial rights are threatened and viewed with envious eyes and when the most subtle arguments are employed by the ablest legal minds in the universe, in the effort to wrest from us our rights and privileges and hand them over to others to our everlasting shame and loss. Whatever has been won for the Colony against the aggression of foreign powers, has been and this is willingly admitted by the best thinking men in this country to-day. And this is one of the principal reasons why the country is calling for Sir Robert Bond to take the lead of the great Liberal Party to-day. The country wants a man that will be proof against the wiles of double-dealing politicians; a man who is not up to the auctioneer's hammer; who cannot be bought or sold in any emergency, by any unscrupulous politician. Therefore vote for Bond and the Liberal Party, for BOND CAN'T LOSE!

The Tories at Argentina.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—The Tories held a meeting here last night and Devereaux thought to make a point on the Old Age Pensions; he was told that the salary he received out of the Agricultural Grant would give pensions to thirty old fishermen. This settled Devereaux; he was not allowed to say any more. Then Morris tried to speak but would not be listened to at all; he was told to stop at once which he did. Now we had decided to give Walsh a hearing and did so until unfortunately for himself he tried to introduce public schools, but he was told to stop and not only told to do so, but was made to do it. Then the pent up indignation of the people broke forth; he was told that it was not to the likes of him we wanted to go if we wanted to know anything about our schools, that the interests of our schools were safe, and in good hands, and if we wanted information regarding them we knew to whom to apply. What we did want to know was what was done with the people's money the past four years. We know millions were squandered but we did not get any of it. I tell you, Mr. Editor, these fellows cleared out pretty lively as did also the few buckaroos who came down from Placentia to tell us how to vote, amongst their number being the Game and Fishery Warden who pockets a big salary given him by the Tories, so he thought we would help him to hold on to it. But when the meeting broke up these fellows took to their heels and I am told never stopped until they reached Jersey Side, where they entered with blanched faces exclaiming we will never "go there any more." Morris's Day is Done.

GARNISH, To-day. Capt. Randall Fudge, the Liberal candidate for Fortune Bay, held his first public meeting here last night and received a splendid reception. Bankers who have been on the Laborator confirm the statement of Capt. Fudge that the northern fishermen are sold for the Liberal Union Party. Fortune Bay intends to fall into line and elect its first fisherman member. Two-thirds of the voters here will vote for Fudge. Reports from the north side of the Bay show almost a three quarters vote for the Liberal candidate.

PEITFORTE, To-day. The Liberal candidates held a most successful meeting at this place last night. Sullivan opened the meeting and was followed by Carty and Sumner. All three made rousing speeches. They were greeted with cheers upon arising and were received with a perfect storm of applause when they finished. We people of the western shore are disgusted with the criminal extravagance of the Morris crowd. The roads and bridges, where any crisis are dangerous to life. BOND'S MANIFESTO.

ELOQUENT, DIGNIFIED and MASTERLY.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir.—Enclosed find $1 for copies of the Bond Manifesto to be sent to all the settlements of the Southern Shore and St. Mary's and Placentia Bays. Any intelligent reader sincerely interested in the future of this country, should read it, think over it, and if capable of conviction and free to exercise the power of the franchise, I have no doubt that he will cast his vote for the Bond candidate.

I regard this Manifesto as an able production, eloquent, dignified and masterly. If this Manifesto and Kent's criticism of the Budget Speech are carefully read, the man who has ordinary intelligence must be either a slave or a slave-driver who will not vote for a party pledged to carry out the necessary and splendid reforms specified in this utterance of Newfoundland's ablest statesman.

Success to the Bond Party; away with monopoly and extravagance; Advance Terra Nova!

Funeral Ceremony.

An imposing ceremony was witnessed at Portage Cove on Sunday afternoon when the funeral of the late Fred Miller took place. Many people from the city were in the procession of mourners. Besides every one in the settlement attended. At the church Rev. Canon Smith, assisted by Mr. Husey, school teacher at Portage Cove, officiated. Canon Smith also preached a most impressive sermon that touched the hearts of all present. He dwelt on the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death. The remains were laid to rest in the C. of E. Cemetery.

An Appeal to

Voters in a Ti

Outport voters, St. John's greets you with outstretched hands. They are your brothers—of the same flesh and blood—with the same interests in the general business of your island home and they ask your assistance in this hour of peril.

Who broke off the Tory fetters from your wrists in the time of the old Tory regime, and gave you liberty enabling you to breathe freely and walk abroad with a firmer step and more independent men in your own island home? Who put within your power the proud boast of freedom and pointed you forward to the time when fraud and tyranny, and oppression, in public life and of every kind, would go down before an awakened public conscience and a system of politics just, pure and true, and sacred as any other ethics under the sun?

Who did all this for you? Your noble sires who have long since passed away and whose memory you will honor at this time, with one determined, that crushing blow against Toryism from which it will never be able to rise its hydra-head again.

We are in a place now, friends, where the most desperate means are being used to deprive you of the full freedom and liberty of the franchise. We must therefore STAND UP FOR OUR RIGHTS and assert our will and authority to model a government suited to Liberal ideas and democratic interests justly interwoven with all other local interests.

Now, friends, "quit you like men," and do your duty as your sires did. "Who would be free themselves must strike the blow."

Honored Outport citizens—give no quarter to a government that will grind the faces of the poor and fill their own pockets with the taxes unjustly wrung from the very sinews of the people.

What have the present Tory Government done and what are they doing?

These are very reasonable questions and they are not very hard to answer. Now I wish to answer truthfully and without any equivocation whatever. I hold myself responsible to a higher tribunal than the Government for what I say.

The present Tory Government are not only "grinding the faces of the poor," but they are depriving them of some of the most valuable privileges vouchsafed to them, by the great Benefactor of mankind, as a side to a comfortable and economical living in this world of suffering and toil.

Why are the public rights unjustly restricted in many industrial resources of the island? No sooner do the people discover a new method of employment offering fruitful returns for their labors, than the Government, always on the alert for possible steps in and "Claps on the Grips" either for themselves or their friends. We have had a new instance of this recently in the Fox catching business. As soon as the people began to utilize this industry successfully, the
