otic Association believes that its nembers will be interested in the following extracts from a recent letter from the Hon. Lady Lawley, who, throughout the war so ably filled the office of Hon. Secretary to Queen Mary's Needlework Guild. It will be noted that Her Majesty the Queen considered the establishing for the wives of sailors and soldiers, the most suitable purpose to which the surplus funds of her Association and its Branches could be devoted.

9 Seymour Street, Portman Square, W. 19.—FRIDAY. Ember Day. Dear Madam:-My work as Secrebut before that work becomes a memory only, I want to convey to you the valuable help which you accorded to me in my capacity as Organizing Secretary of the Guild.

To the success of our great enterprise I have had wonderful testimony from men and women of all ranks and every station of life. This has only been achieved by the loyal and generous support which has been accorded to me by yours and other branches all over the world, for which I beg your acceptance of my sincere thanks. As a memorial of the work Bros. Ltd., from:done by the Guild during the war the McClary Mfg.
