The Bostons defeated the Athletics in Boston on Saturday, in their fourth game, by a score of 7 to 6. The grounds were in fine order, and the Boston's were received with great applause. They were outfielded by their opponents, but won by their superior batting. The runs each innings.

The Bostons were away twenty-one days in their late tour, played 14 games, and scored 490 runs to their opponents' 80, lesing only one game, that with the PHILADRIPHIAS at Chicago—9 to 4:

of their skin game in Brooklyn on Sat-urd-y afternoon. The ATLANTICS failed to score except in one inding, and then only through errors. Had they support-ed their pitcher properly, none would have resched "home" during the entire game. Score 11 to 2; time 2h 10m.

LOCALS.

The return game between the above nines took place in Hespeler yesterday afternoon. In their last match, it will be mbered, the score was 52 to (Hespeler, of course, being the 28) too large to show good play, but the gam large to show good play, but the game yesterday was of a different sort, and was brought down to the fine thing—the sore being Sleeman's 27. Heapsler 8. Four successive times the Heapsler in ware put out in one two three order by the superior fielding of the opponents, and looked very much life as though things were going to continue so until Marchell made his home-base on the fifth innings, followed immediately after by Laing, and from that time Hespeler stock seemed to raise somewhat, until the ninth innings, when the sopre stood as given below. The Hespeler teem are composed of good players, but they will have to improve very much before they can consider themselves a match for Mr. Sleeman's nine. The following is
