

Nervous Prostration

It is now a well established fact in medical science that nervousness is due to impure blood. Therefore the true way to cure nervousness is by purifying and enriching the blood. The great blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this letter:

"For the last two years I have been a great sufferer with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart. I was weak in my limbs and had smothered sensations. At last my physician advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did, and I am happy to say that I am now strong and well. I am still using Hood's Sarsaparilla and would not be without it. I recommend it to all who are suffering with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart." Mrs. DALTON, 55 Alice St., Toronto, Ontario. Get Hood's, because

FOOTBALL

At Recreation Park, Glencoe, on Saturday afternoon the London Collegiate Institute team and the G. A. A. team will play a game of football.

THE TURF

BOUNCER WINS.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 10.—The $5,000 Transylvania stake today was a great race, and each heat the winner earned a new record. Lynne Belle proved master of the route for two heats. Alton and Pitta competing every inch of the route, as they did in the three succeeding heats. Billy Andrews just landed safe inside the distance flag with Bouncer for two heats, and when to some it looked sure for Lynne Belle to win, he led into the home stretch in the third heat by a comfortable margin. Bouncer came fast, and a cry went up. "Bouncer wins." It was even up ten strides from the wire, when Bouncer drew his whip and Bouncer passed under the wire a winner by a neck in 2:10 1/2. In the other two heats Bouncer won easily. Summary: Transylvania stake for 2:15 trotters, value $5,000.—Bouncer, b. m., by Hummer-Musette (Andrews), 1; Lynne Belle, 2; Pellata, 3; Alto, 4; Queechy, 5. Best time, 2:10.

TROTTING AT WINDSOR.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 11.—Good racing was seen by those who braved the cold yesterday. It took two heats to decide the unfinished 2:14 pace. William Wonder, in the 2:14 pace, lowered his record of 2:24 to 2:22 1/2. Summary: First race, 2:14 pace (unfinished from yesterday), purse, $500: Gertie B. b. m. by Fulton (E. James), 1; 1 2 8 2 4 1; Syrena, b. m. by Fulton (E. James), 2; 3 6 3 1 1 3 3; Bellus, ch. g. by Fulton (E. James), 3; 4 5 4 4 1 4; Nydia, b. m. by Fulton (E. ATHLETICS

CAN'T FIGHT IN ARKANSAS. Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 11.—After having opened court on the Corbett-Fitzsimmons case, Judge Duffie stated to Sheriff Hackett that he had been informed and believed that an attempt would be made to bring the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight off in Hot Springs, and that he wished to call his attention to the fact that in doing so, the principals would be breaking the laws of the State, and outraging the dignity of the State of Arkansas. He would, in conjunction with Judge Teague, the prosecuting attorney, inform the sheriff at what stage it is his duty to interfere.

Corbett and Fitzsimmons will do the remainder of their training in this city. The former will arrive here next Monday from San Antonio. The following telegram received from Martin Julian was published in a local paper: "Kindly say in your paper that I intend to bring Fitzsimmons to my town to finish training. Am at liberty to consider offers from those offering the largest inducements. Answers must be sent to Corpus Christi, Texas."

It seems that Downer, the Scotch runner, ruptured an important muscle of his thigh. An injury of this kind infallibly means that the athlete's career is over.

What a successful champion piper and dancer can make at Highland games in Scotland during the summer may be inferred from the experience of Angus Macrae, Callander. He has just concluded the best season he has had, having won 42 first, 22 second and 8 third prizes, along with three gold medals. The total value is about $135.

On new road skates which are now in use in Great Britain it is possible to travel quite as quickly as on ice. James Smart, the champion professional skater of the world, taking part in the great Yarmouth sports lately, covered a mile in 2 minutes, and thirteen miles in 40 minutes. The last two records beat anything that has been done on ice, and in the case of the mile run, Smart was only six seconds behind his own ice record.

GOLF. The golf playing of M. Balfour, British Conservative leader, has greatly deteriorated this season, and he has lost in all the friendly matches that he has played in Scotland.

YACHTING. Just five and twenty years ago Mr. James Ashbury was out and away the most-talked-of man in Britain and America, for in 1870 it was his yacht, the Cambria, which sailed the white race the America's cup. A quarter of a century has passed since that, and as the race between Defender and Valkyrie was in full swing "Mr. James Ashbury, an elderly gentleman of no occupation," was found dead in his bed in Old Burlington street, London.

THE TRIGGER. Rifle shots everywhere will regret to learn that Edward Ross, the first Queen's Rifleman, and son of Capt. Horatio Ross, is now a confirmed invalid. In January last he was knocked down in the streets of London by a hansom cab, sustaining severe injuries to brain and spine, from which he has never recovered.

Methodist Missionaries Recalled

From Japan—They Are Not Working in Harmony With Dr. Macdonald.

Montreal, Oct. 11.—The Methodist mission board has given out its decision regarding the complaints of the six missionaries in Japan.

It is quite evident that the said missionaries have been and are dissatisfied with the work of the board of the executive committee and of the chief executive officer of the Missionary Society appointed by the General Conference, and are not working harmoniously with the representative of the board in Japan, viz., the Rev. Dr. Macdonald.

In order to restore harmony and induce the missionaries to continue without irritation their work, the executive committee wrote on May 17, 1895, the conciliatory letter heretofore referred to. The reply of the missionaries to that communication was not their request to be recalled, and indicates a spirit that could scarcely be expected, and leaves no alternative to the board but to accede to their requests and recall them.

The resolution was adopted unanimously by the board. The board further resolved that Dr. Elby be employed by the board in the interests of the Missionary Society to receive the same remuneration as a minister on furlough. The case of Rev. F. A. Cassidy is still under consideration.

UNCLE SAM'S CROPS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 11.—The report of the Agricultural Department makes a general condition of corn 93.5 per cent, against 96.4 for the month of September. The conditions of yield per acre of wheat indicate a production of 12.5 bushels, being six-tenths of a bushel less than last October's preliminary estimate.

GIVEN UP!

Stokes Bay, Ont., Oct. 11.—There is not the slightest hope left that the steamer Africa, which was wrecked on the coast of the schooner Severn is lying partly under water, and is badly broken up. She has been abandoned as being a total wreck.

The crew of the tug John Logie, of Southampton, today picked up a body of Pike Bay with a life preserver attached to it, on which was the name "Steamer Africa." It is supposed to be that of Edward Forest, second engineer of the Africa.

HIS WIFE'S FORGIVENESS

Is What Abraham Pincombe, of London, Desires.

Bogus Telegrams Announcing His Death Sent to Her in From Aylmer.

Aylmer, Oct. 11.—On Tuesday a telegram was sent from Aylmer to Mrs. Abraham Pincombe, London, saying that her husband was here dead, and asking what should be done with the body. The telegram was signed J. Johnson. On Wednesday morning another telegram was sent to the same party asking what should be done with the dead body of Abraham Pincombe, also signed J. Johnson.

To the messrs. Mrs. Pincombe replied they would have to bury the body in Aylmer as she had no money, but when the afternoon train arrived yesterday from the west it brought Mrs. Pincombe and her brother and sister. When they arrived here they could find no one who knew anything about the death of Abraham Pincombe or any J. Johnson.

On Tuesday a stranger arrived in town and stopped at the Mansion House. He was seen skulking around the G. T. R. depot yesterday morning upon the arrival of the early morning train, and it was after the arrival of this train that the second message was sent to London. Before the arrival of the afternoon train yesterday he was seen making his way to the G. T. R. station, but has not been seen since the arrival of the gentleman and two ladies from London. It appears that some weeks ago, Abraham Pincombe, of London, was summoned before the London police magistrate for assaulting his wife. He failed to appear, and a warrant was issued for his arrest, but he could not be found. Some days later Mrs. Pincombe received a letter from Gloucester from her husband, asking her to withdraw the charge and let him come home and he would behave himself.

Mrs. Pincombe paid no attention to the letter. A few days later she received a letter from Tilbury, saying he was down with a fever, and would die unless he could get home or to some hospital where he could secure proper nursing, and the next she heard was the telegram on Saturday from Aylmer, saying he was dead, and asking her to come here and take charge of the body.

It is thought that the stranger who was in Aylmer was Abraham Pincombe, and that the object in sending the telegram was to get his wife down here to try and get her to withdraw the charge against him, but when he found his wife's brother was with her he thought it was far healthier to make himself scarce.

STATUTE LABOUR FUTURE.

Is It a Profitable Method of Repairing Roads?

Opinions of Leading Elgin County Men.

At the meeting of the Toll Roads Commission in St. Thomas, the following gave evidence:

Mr. Malcolm Campbell, clerk of Southwold: Had studied the statute labor for twenty years, and considered it a regular force; favored a money expenditure by commission, the money to be raised by frontage rate.

Mr. Donald Turner, ex-warden of Elgin: Thought the sooner statute labor was abolished the better.

Mr. John A. Miller, ex-warden Elgin: Favored the abolition of statute labor. Mr. Frank Bennett, Reeve of Southwold: Would do away with statute labor and levy a rate according to requirements of the road, to be expended by a commissioner.

Mr. John Pollock, Southwold: Favored abolition of statute labor.

Mr. James Wallis, Southwold: Thought statute labor was a fraud.

Mr. J. C. Dance, ex-M.P.P.: Favored the abolition of statute labor, but did not think public opinion yet educated up to it.

Mr. K. W. McKay, county clerk of Elgin: Would suggest doing away with statute labor and the appointment of a commissioner to superintend the expenditure of the money on this expenditure would raise a portion of the sum required on the basis of the statute labor, and the balance by levying a rate.

Mr. W. M. Ford, ex-warden Elgin: Did not approve of statute labor; would levy taxes for road improvements and expend same along the route being employed.

Mr. John Wilson, reeve of Southwold: Favored the abolition of statute labor. Three years ago a vote was taken in his township to abolish statute labor, the bylaw being defeated, but he believed the feeling in favor of abolition is growing.

VILLON THE VAGABOND.

Otis Skinner's Great Play Monday—A Sparking Comedy This Week.

The production of "Villon, the Vagabond," which Otis Skinner will meet at the Grand Opera House next Monday evening, is attracting considerable attention, from the character of the play itself, which is an adaptation of the character of the great French poet, Francois Villon. This remarkable man lived and rhymed about the middle of the fifteenth century, and he gave to the medieval poetry that which it had hitherto lacked in the personal tone. His life was very romantic, and, if history is to be believed, a very varied one, because, judging from his biographies, Villon spent a great deal of his time behind prison walls. The play, it is said, is a strong one, the dialogue being clear and crisp, as well as bright, and the situations and climaxes both effective and highly dramatic. The company which supports Mr. Skinner is, it is said, an exceptionally strong one and much above the average company one sees in the support of a star.

The coming production is unquestionably one of the most important dramatic events of the season in this city. Otis Skinner comes here directly from the Park Theater, Boston, where he is at present playing a most successful engagement. This is the only engagement Otis Skinner will play in Canada this season.

MY WIFE'S FRIEND.

The coming attraction tomorrow night is one which will be gratifying to the elite of the patrons of the Grand Opera House. Mr. Wm. C. Andrews supported by a company of high class comedians will present a play called "My Wife's Friend." It is one of those unique and dainty trifles which of late have become the vogue, dealing in the most uproarious fun caused by the embarrassing situations of a "fin de siecle" love story.

The author of the play is Mr. M. Marsden who has in the past turned out some very brilliant work. Mr. Andrews is an excellent light comedian, and earned his spurs with Barney McAuley, Frederick Ward, Roland Reed, and other well-known stars. The play will be beautifully mounted.

A PLUCKY WOMAN.

Attacked by Masked Men She Uses Her Pistol.

The Robbers Flee—The Woman Shot.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 11.—A fine display of grit and the liberal use of a pistol probably saved the life of Mrs. Leva Marshall, telegraph operator at Baden for the Southern Pacific. Late last night L. C. Herbert, the office manager, left the office, leaving Mrs. Marshall in charge. About fifteen minutes later Mrs. Marshall was startled by someone kicking on the door. She was somewhat alarmed at the violence displayed, and putting a pistol in her hand, went toward the door to open it. Before she reached it the door was kicked in, and a tall, dark complexioned man, wearing a mask, entered and demanded the money, leaving a companion outside. Mrs. Marshall drew her revolver for use, but the villain was too quick for her, and fired at her heart, missing it by a few inches, the ball entering her left arm at the elbow. Mrs. Marshall then commenced to use her revolver, emptying it on the fleeing robbers. She waited for some time, thinking that the shots would be heard, but no assistance coming, she telegraphed to Train Dispatchers Walters, in this city, who immediately sent a special car to bring her to San Francisco for treatment. Before the train reached here a constable arrived and commenced a search for the men, but without success. Mrs. Marshall is now at St. Luke's Hospital, in this city. She will recover.

DEMOLISHED A TOWN.

A Disastrous Hurricane in Lower California.

The Damage in the Millions—Crops Ruined.

Guaymas, Mexico, Oct. 11.—In the hurricane which swept over La Paz, Lower California, yesterday, 134 houses were destroyed, 4 lives were lost, and about 21 persons were wounded. Nineteen craft, including the American schooner Casar, partly loaded with dynamite, were beached, and a Government cutter was sunk.

The hurricane crossed the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, and swept up the coast into the Gulf of California, doing great damage. The hurricane was accompanied by deluges of water, which completed the ruin the wind had wrought. At Topolobampo all the houses of the American colony were greatly damaged, and the custom house was wrecked. The Ahomay River, north of Topolobampo, overflowed its banks, and destroyed sugar plantations, the sugar mills 30 miles away from the channel of the stream. The entire cane crop of the State of Sinaloa, as far as reported, is completely ruined, and the sugar estates at Ahomay, the property of Mark Sherwood, of Chicago, and his associates, were demolished. The sugar crop on the Yaqui River, in the State of Sonora, is also destroyed. The damage to the coast interests of the States of Sinaloa and Sonora is estimated at several millions of dollars. Several coasting steamers are several days overdue at Guaymas, and great apprehension is felt for their safety.

A LUCAN GATHERING

Of Epworth Leaguers of the St. Marys District—Some Good Addresses.

Lucan, Oct. 11.—The St. Marys district Epworth League convention met in the Catholic church here on Wednesday of this week. A goodly number of citizens and friends from a distance were present.

The meeting was opened at 10 o'clock by prayer and praise, conducted by the Rev. C. Bartrop. At 10:30 an able essay, entitled "Power for Service," was read by Miss A. Mossop, Granton, and at 11 o'clock Rev. R. J. Hosking began his subject, "Our Opportunities."

The above topics were ably handled, after which an interesting interchange of views occurred. The day was closed by the singing of hymns, from 1:30 to 1:45 p.m., were concluded the reeve of the village, Mr. R. Armitage, in his official capacity practically extended to the visitors the freedom of the city. He gave all present a hearty greeting. First, because their work tended to the formation of a Christian character and good citizenship, and secondly, because it aided the devotees mentally and morally and points them to a higher and purer life. He knew the institution was only in its infancy, and they were there to further its interests, and on that ground he bade them welcome.

At 2:30 Rev. Dr. Cook, Granton, gave the address on "Christ's Teaching," and showed it was the bulwark of our Christianity. The doctor was listened to throughout with rapt attention and frequently applauded. The reverend gentleman handled his subject with marked ability.

Mr. A. G. Crews, general secretary, Toronto, next addressed the meeting on the general work and utility of the league, and urged the necessity of the formation of like institutions in connection with every church. He strongly recommended a reading circle in connection with every league, and named a number of excellent ones.

The meeting was followed by a discussion in which the Revs. Dr. Cook, Nethercott, Snowden and others engaged.

The League before and during the revival" was ably dealt with by the Rev. T. J. Snowden, and "The league after" by Rev. T. Snowden.

The nominating committee reported at this juncture the names of officers for a new district league, with the chairman of the district as president. The evening session was largely attended, the church being filled to overflowing.

At 8:15 p.m. Mr. F. W. Daly, B.A., of London, took the platform and dealt ably with the subject "Christian Citizenship." The league as a factor in their production," and wound up a pleasing address by urging upon young and old the necessity of casting their ballots in favor of temperance candidates.

The last speaker on the programme was the Rev. A. C. Crews, of Toronto, who spoke for 40 minutes on the "Alms and Methods of the League." He said that 18,000 leagues existed in the Northern States, with a membership of over 1,000,000, and that we have in Ontario over 60,000 active working members, whose whole object is to save souls. He divided the work of the league into four departments, viz., Christian endeavor, missionary, literary and social, and dwelt at length upon each, after which the benediction was pronounced.

SCARED TO DEATH

By a Dog—Thought It Was a Burglar.

Port Dover, Oct. 11.—The verdict of the jury inquiring into the cause of the death of the late Mrs. Lonsbury was that the deceased came to her death through a fright caused by the attempts of a dog to enter the house during a thunderstorm, the noise made by the dog being mistaken for that of supposed burglars.

Deceased had been conversing with others on the previous evening on the subject of burglars, which probably caused her to think the unusual noise was caused by them. When the deceased called on her niece for assistance the latter was too much alarmed also to render any. Mrs. Lonsbury unfortunately fell down in a swoon and died.

THE MANITOBA HARVEST.

The Farmers of the Northwest Will Have Plenty of Money to Spend.

Winnipeg (Special), Oct. 7.—The prospects of a good year for the Manitoba farmers are now assured, thanks to the abundant harvests. One of the causes for the sickness prevalent here this year may be obviated, as the farmers will have more money to spare for the purchase of the necessities for health. One of the straws which shows which way the wind is blowing is the fact that druggists are ordering the well-known remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, in unusually large quantities. The inhabitants of the Province are well aware of the value of the medicine, and only the financial stringency has hitherto prevented its universal use.

ONE OF LONDON'S ODD SIGHTS.

There is no church in London more grimly affecting or more gressomely picturesque than St. Giles', Cripplegate. Its lantern is strangely quaint and blackened, its towers dark and solemn. The approaches are all straggling and curious; we fancy ourselves in a bit of some old foreign city. The curious skulls and hour glass over the entrance to the churchyard are vigorously done. It escaped the great fire, and is an interesting church altogether—and picturesque. Here we find Milton's tomb. Fox's ("of the Book of Martyrs") and that of a daughter of Shakespeare, Lucy. And, if this were not sufficient to reward one's curiosity, they will show you the registry of the marriage of Oliver Cromwell to Elizabeth Boucher. In the churchyard a large fragment of the old city wall is to be seen.

MURDERED HER MOTHER.

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Mary Knight, aged 33, murdered her mother, Mrs. Catherine Hart, aged 64. Both were drunk and quarrelling, and Mrs. Knight knocked her mother down with a piece of iron, then picked up a chair, beat her over the head, smashing her skull and braining her. The old woman was dead when the officers arrived. The daughter is in the city prison charged with murder.

Tornado Tom—He was tough, but his heart was in the right place. Blizzard Bill—That's so. Tornado Tom—Yes, I shot for the place where it ought to be and it was right there.

Don't You Remember Long Ago!

As the years roll on we more and more recall the events of the past. School days with their tasks and chores come back again to us in memory, but with the glamor and enchantment of distant views. The old school and church, the boys and girls we romped with, father's voice, mother's smile, the joy of the holiday—no pleasures of the present can compare with those enjoyed in the days now locked up in the memory of the past. In a similar way we recall the old time tested friend of the past—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—that never failed us then and is just as sure to serve us now. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is sure, safe, and painless. Use no other.

THERE IS NOT a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nulley is in danger with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—a pumonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence.
