MILL FEED -Quiet, steady. Live Stock Markets. EAST BUFFALO. N. Y.. Jan. 12.—Cattle—Offerings 10 cars, mostly butchers. Good fat cows sold at $3 10, and poorer lots down to $2 75; good mixed cows and heifers, $3 30; fair to good fat bulis at $2 45 to $2 85.

Sheep and Lambs—There was a heavy run, 64 cars being on sale, including 17 cars of Canadas. Most of the native lamb stock was of the common order, and about three-quarters of the offerings were lambs. There was a fairly active demand from buyers for New York butchers, the regular order buyers, and the buyers for city slaughterers, but there was little demand from speculators for the lambs, though the inquiry for sheep was good. With the liberal supply of sale stock, anything in the sheep line of fat and of the wether order was scarce, and that class generally sold at 10c to 15c stronger than the early sales of the week, while fair and the common order of butchering sheep sold at about steady prices with the early sales of the week. EAST BUFFALO. while fair and the common order of butchering sheep sold at about steady prices with the early sales of the week. Lambs generally were easier in price. Natives and State lambs of good quality 10c lower, and common to fair 15c to 20c lower; $4.65 to $4.80 took the bulk of the good lambs offering. Between $5.30 and $5.35 was paid for some selected Canadas, but the bulk of choice sold at $5.25, and $4.90 for fairly good stock.

Hogs—Receipts, 46 cars. The market opened fairly active and firm, but before noon ruled dull and unsettled, and trices slumped off fully 10c to 15c on best Yorkers and mediums, while peakers would not now within 15c to 25c. while packers would not pay within 15c to 25c of the top prices. Early sales were as follows: Yorkers, $5 65 to $5 75; choice light, $5 75 to $5 80; good mediums and mixed, $5 60 to $5 65; choice heavy, $5 60 to $5 65; pigs, $5 85 to $5 90, but later closed with a downward tendency.

MONTREAL. Jan. 13.—There were about 32 milch cows and springers offered on this market yesterday, but there seemed to be scarcely any demand except for good milkers, and as the majority of the offerings were scarcely of this sort, one of the milkmen described them as goats. There were not many sales during the forenoon. The following sales were made up to 11 o'clock: A vair of extra cows were sold for $120 and another pair for $109; a single cow for $55; two very fine springers were sold for $160.

TORONTO. Jan. 13.—The receipts yesterday were 39 car loads. The demand for cattle was inactive, and prices are a shade weaker; very few choice offered and they brought 3½c to 4c, the latter for a few head of prime; good cattle sold at 3½c to 3½c, and inferior at 2½c to 2½c; milch cows in good supply and easier, with sales at $30 to $48 cach. Calves brought $2 to $8 50 per head, according to quality. About 500 sheep and lambs offered. Sneep sold at $4 to $5 per head and lambs at $3 to $3 80, or 4c per lb for the best. Hogs—Firm with sales of 690; light fat, weighed off cars, sold at $5 25 to per lb for the best. Hogs—Firm. with sales of 600; light fat, weighed off cars, sold at $5 25 to $5 35 and choice stores at $5; medium and heavy hogs, 4\frac{3}{2}c per lb.

Mr. Shepherd lived on Wellington street, near Grey, was about 50 years of age, and his wife had been visiting in Ingersoll for a few days before his death. On Wednesday he was on the street and a neighbor, noticing his enfeebled appearance, asked him if he did not feel iil. The man was found to be so very ill that he had to be assisted to the house and a neighboring doctor summoned. The medical man ordered his immediate removal to the hospital. When the Dales were doing their comic juggling a great rubber ball nearly two feet in diameter, with which they were performing, flew from the stage down among the audience, bumping from head to head and finally rolling over towards the orchestra, Scanlan ran and picked it up, tossing it on the stage. It bounded into the audience again and he again sprang and grabbed it. One of the Dales was tossing knives in the air at the time, and Scanlan fired the ball at him, striking him full in the chest and sending the knives flying in every direction.
