H. C. Becher, broker, Bank of Commerce building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Co. today: New York, June 25-Noon .- Our prices

New York, June 25—Noon.—Our prices did not respond to the better tone in London, and the opening was dull and rather heavy. With Pennsylvania weak. It so sold slowly down to 123½, most of the sales being against purchases of rights. At 123 there were at least 20,000 shares wanted. So much support at 123 led to a good deal of covering, and at the same time the rest of the market showed a tendency to rally. The Southern Ry.
