London Adbertiser.

VO EDITIONS DAILY - WEEKLY

The London Advertiser Company, nited, 191-193 Dundas street, Lon-

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 27.

The Waterworks Surplus.

s kind, hand over their surplus to ## hinese Labor in South Africa. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, in a until such time as the question uld be decided by a South African Sir Henry is accused by his political onents of making a bid for the eady, and it is not disputed that Mr. Chamberlain adds that it has t of these capitalists are not even the Empire's parts. British blood, and it is now clear they conspired to bring about a sh and the Boers for their own purposes. The colonies acquired nquest cannot become a strength Empire, and a seat of British if white men are to be excluded his lawn mower that he hails the snow shovel with joy, and by the end of the winter he feels just as bitter toward the snow shovel, and is once more delighted to push the lawn mower. But if you permitted to get in arrears.

level, and are denied the privilege of were sufficiently virulent before this system of semi-slavery was introduced. lem, and now the admixture of Chinese

Chamberlain's Imperial Idea.

Mr. Chamberlain has the gift of terse Mr. Bushe. dation of the British Empire than is given in this passage from his speech wonderful structure the British Emicy to which we can give a name. It time, and which, let us pray, have not deserted us now-the characteristics of a great governing race. We find, if we look back, men of our race why, if Canada iver wants to increase her population, all she has to do is to sind sionaries, called by this characteristic-spirit to very distant climes and countries and then becoming it may be only explorers, it may be conquerors, it may be occupiers of hitherto unoccupied soil, it may be only to peg out claims for posterity. They did

Why, if Canada iver wants to increase her population, all she has to do is to sind give Sir Henry a cheer, but as they were waiting at the gate near Constitution Hill, and Sir Henry drove in at the opposite gate—the one near Bird-down th' blinds, cose th' dure an' hang out a sign: "United States to rent." little encouragement from the organ had very little government assistance. When the Government came in, they came in without intelligence and without real knowledge or sympathy. They followed these brave pioneers haltingly, with interested motives. These new plantations were regarded by the official element as the founwhich were to be controlled by us for our benefit and not for theirs. That was the first stage.

with their limited knowledge of local aspirations and needs, began to look upon them as a useless extravagance and began to suggest and to press upon them a self-government which was not conceived in their interests. but which was intended to lead to discharge us of every obligation."

If Mr. Chamberlain will cite any attempt of any British Government to press upon this country, or any other ers. colony, installments of self-government ange River Colony. It is said that which they were not prepared for or Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, also killed four ne 11,000 Chinese coolies, in addition willing to receive, he will make an those already in the mining camps, original contribution to history. It is we been contracted for, and that the true that many British statesmen bene owners will have a claim for came indifferent to the preservation of mages if the Government refuses to colonial ties, but these views were to contracts to be fulfilled. ow the contracts to be fulfilled. never expressed in imperial legisla- He waited about five minutes, and the ap Chinese labor has helped greatly been reserved for the present generathe revival of the mining industry tion to see the opening of the third hair, it would not have needed more than the Rand. It is claimed also that stage of imperial development, "when people of South Africa are entirely we have abandoned the idea of dictatorable to Chinese labor, although (ing to those offshoots of our country) orable to Chinese labor, although ing to those offshoots of our country statement has not been put to the how they shall conduct their own afof. But the system has been a sore fairs, when we recognize that we are with the British working classes, all kinsmen in one family, citizens in had a great deal to do with turn- one commonwealth, and co-partners in sing. the tide of popular favor against one empire." This is excellent, but Balfour Government. The coolies many must part company with him brought in under contract, are kept when he goes further, and says that compounds under strict surveil- the ties of sentiment are not suffi- Earl Grey, with characteristic kindlithe ties of sentiment are not sufficient to hold the Empire together, and that political federation is the ideal which they must strive to realize. We fancy most Canadians will say that the true and only cohesive power is the power of sentiment, and that the here is something of slavery in whole system which grates on the canadians described to leave the ties of sentiment are not sufficient to hold the Empire together, and that together, and that political federation is the ideal t whole system which grates on the line of increasing decentralization, as win Smith, Lord Selborne (Roundell rty-loving spirit of the British peo- in the past. They believe that abso-scholarship, which yields the successful It was not to increase the lute and complete autonomy for each dends of gold mining shareholders division of the Empire capable of selfthe capitalists of the Rand, that ada, Australia, and New Zealand red out their blood and treasure.

The Craven scholarship, which yields the successful competitor for a year for two years, has been held by such men as Lord Milner, Mr. James Bryce and Mr. Asgulth. The result is creditable to McGill University, of which Rose is a graduate, and indicates that the product of our Canadian universities can hold their own anywhere.

A Wise Manufacturer.

[Judge.] "I have here a model," said the inventor that is sure to have a large sale if it is put on the market. "Indeed!" said the manufacturer. "That is most interesting. What is your inven-

This is a combination lawn mower and snow shovel. By simply twisting this knob to the left the grass-cutting mechanism is turned into a set of paddles mechanism is turned into a set of paddles that literally sweep the snow to both ation of the mines, but the gold of ralia and America is mined by men, and why not the gold of Africa? Of what advantage to men, and why not the gold of the particular in the weelth of the particular in the weelth of the particular in the weelth of the particular in the summer the average by the end of the summer the average in the particular in the particular in the profit is the weelth of the profit in the mpire is the wealth of the Rand age man is so tired of and angry with his lawn mower that he halls the snow have the memory of one ever before him while he is operating the other."

Realizing the truth of the statement, the inventor took up his model and went out, saying that perhaps he could could twist the thing around and convert it into a mop holder and dress fitter for women as they would have anything. women, as they would buy anything.

Queer Echo in Court.

[London Daily Mail.] A barrister named Bushe was trying a case in Limerick before Chief Baron O'Grady, when, in the course of the law-'s speech, an ass began to bray laud-outside the courtroom, the window of

When Judge O'Grady later was charging the jury the ass again began to bray, Sir Henry's con this time at a greater distance from the courtroom window.

"I beg your lordship's pardon," said
Mr. Bushe. "May I ask you to repeat your last words, There is such an echo here I did not quite catch that sentence."

Vests and Wa terats.

[Montreal Star.1 A Toronto man who has just returned ties with certain English words that rivals those Mr. George Ham experienced.
"I had this on," he remarked, sticking pire is? It has reached three stages his chest out to show a glaring red waistit was only when I went to buy another waistcoat and asked for a vest, and was

Dooley and Canada.

[Mr. Dooley.]

Worse Than War.

[Washington Post.] Has New York become a During the nine months from Jan. 1 to Sept. 30 of this year 2.555 persons lost their lives through accident or violence—by homicide train wreck and trolley collision, by suicide and sunstroke, by fire. Every day nine lives are snuffed out by inviting Sir Henry to immediate the summer of the suicing support of the summer of the summe slaughtered 97. Is it to be wondered at that the Metropolitan and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit companies pay $3,000,000

An Attractive Guarantee.

[Advertisement in Dubuque, Iowa, Theater Programme.] Mr. Chamberlain says, but he Date prop. Up-to-date work guaranteed a long consultation with Lord Knollys,

Henry Irving's Estato.

Bachelors, Widows and Hogs.

[Oxford (N. Y.) Public Ledger 1 Mr. J. K. Daniel, a thrify bachelor of ultimate separation, and which would for a good wife. He has just killed two in the country that can beat him? We must say hurrah for the widows as well as the bachelors in raising big pork-

Not a Strategist.

[Hamilton Times.] How little he knew of women! Had he but thrown out a little taffy the Sunday

The Kaiser's Christmas. [Toronto Star.]

And even the Kalser, we notice, shuts up long enough to let the herald angels

A Canadian Triumph.

[Toronto News.]

Not the Same.

[New York Sun.] A young woman who has recently taken charge of a kindergarten entered a trolley car the other day, and as she took her seat smiled pleasantly at a gentleman sitting opposite. He raised his hat, but it was evident that he did not know her.
Realizing her error, she said, in tones audible throughout the entire car: "Oh, please excuse me! I mistook you for the father of two of my children."
She left the car at the next corner.

His Mission in Life.

[Chicago News.] "I am doing my share toward the ele-ation of womankind," remarked the vation of womankind," remarked the youth with the tall collar and noisy tie.
"In what way?" queried the man with the auburn complexion.
"I run an elevator in a department

The devil is president of a dues pay-

[London Daily News.]

In response to his majesty's command, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman visited the King at Buckingham Palace. When the leader of the Liberal party left the palace an hour later he was Prime Minister of England, and which opened on a pasture.

"Wait a moment," said the chief baron.
"One at a time, Mr. Bushe, if you those who had gathered to witness the Sir Henry's command was for 10:45. At 10:30 a footman at 29 Beigrave Square opened the door and blew whistle. In response a hansom caba by on means spic-and-span vehicle for a West End club-darted off the rank and drew up in front of the mansion. A few minutes later the Lib eral leader descended the steps, wear from a trip to England, narrated at the Windsor last night a story of his difficul- dark overcoat, and carrying an umdark overcoat, and carrying an um-

"Buckingham Palace," called Sir of separate existence. It has grown up in a haphazard sort of way, with no polpolitan cabby, gently whipped up his has grown out of the characteristics shown some undershirts, that I had a horse, apparently unaware of the imwhich marked us out in the olden ray of understanding." portance of the journey in which he was playing a part.

A couple of minutes 10:45 the hansom reached the palace. Why, if Canada iver wants to increase A considerable crowd had gathered to

Immediately after his arrival Si Henry Campbell-Bannerman was re ceived by the King, who was attended ighter house? It is today a vast by Lord Kenyon, the lord-in-waiting mbles for the butchery of citizens, and Sir A. Condie Stephens, the groom-in-waiting. The audience with

We undertsand that on his majesty inviting Sir Henry to immediately ur unnatural means. Every day the year through at least one person is killed in the street. During the 120 days from Jan. bility, and asked for a few days in to May 1, 140 citizens were slain by chicles, by automobiles, cars, wagons which to consult his colleagues before a cabs. Of these the trolley cars submitting to his majesty the names submitting to his majesty the names of his ministry. It was therefore ar-Rapid Transit companies pay $3,000,000 ranged that Sir Henry should wait upon the King again the next Monday for the purpose of announcing the names of the members of the new govern ment.

Subsequently the new premier had or whiskers refunded. Clean towel with his majesty's private secretary. Meanwhile it so happened that, out in the outer courtyard of the palace the Guards, with their bands, were per estate but some valuable souvenirs of his let which is known as "Changing the art, which have been auctioned off at Guard," and the crowd had much to good figures. He made a good deal of interest them during the long hour." d a smaller measure of liberty than the thirteen colliberty than the crowd had much to interest them during the long hour's wait. It was noticeable that among those watching the suddent with a hungry look which suggested that many of them were wishing that the crowd had interest them during the long hour's wait. It was noticeable that among those watching the soldiers were many of the unemployed, and the crowd had interest them during the long hour's wait. It was noticeable that among the soldiers were many of the unemployed, and the crowd had some control that the crowd had some control we have had some men Later when the bands left off playing econd stage as follows:

"Our politicians, finding that they were unable to govern these countries according to their own lines, with their limited knowledge of local of the detectives are cast. A restless life, with its ups and the stage. Some when the bands left of playing, some of them amused themselves with making fun of three of the detectives making fun of three of the detectives are cast. A restless life, with its ups and the stage. Some when the bands left of playing, some of them amused themselves with making fun of three of the detectives are cast. A restless life, with its ups and tions and might even have passed updown among its most attractive features. tions, and might even have passed unrecognized but for their association with the third, whose disguise was amusingly obvious. When the bands marched away most of the unem-Walnut Grove Township, will do to tie ployed followed them across the to, and would provide a sumptuous living park, clinging apparently to the cheerpark, clinging apparently to the cheerfulness of the music.

chville recognized him.

Sir Henry came out from the palace at 11:40. As he stood on the Privy Purse steps, waiting while the Royal footman signalled to the driver of the His committee has a surplus of $856. He sult in the death of the Western Fair yard, it was seen that the new head mayoralty.

A Voice—"Yet?" (Laughter.) man!" "God bless you, Sir Henry!" and "Where's Joey now?" Sir Henry smilingly responded, raising his hat. and drove straight away home to Belgrave Square, where another little crowd was awaiting to cheer him.

POEMS THAT LIVE

The Chambered Nautilus.

Its webs of living gauze no more unfurl; Wrecked is the ship of pearl! And every chambered cell, Where its dim, dreaming life was wont to

As the frail tenant shaped the growing Before thee lies revealed-Its irised ceiling rent, its sunless crypt

Year after year beheld the silent toil That spread his lustrous coil; Still, as the spiral grew, He left the past year's dwelling for the new, Stole with soft step its shining archway

Built up its idle door, Stretched in its last-found home and knew the old no more. Thanks for the heavenly message brought by thee, Child of the wandering sea, Cast from her lap, foriorn! From thy dead lips a clearer note is born Than ever Triton blew from wreathed

While on mine ear it rings,

Through the deep caves of thought I hear a voice that sings: Build thee more stately mansions, oh, my As the swift seasons roll!

Leave thy low vaulted past! Let each new temple, nobler than the last, Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast Till thou at length art free ing organization in which no one is remitted to get in arrears.

Till thou at length art ince, in Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!

See Tomorrow's Advertisement For Friday Bargains.

Dress Goods for Thursday.

CHIFFON AMAZONS AND BROADCLOTHS-Full range of shades, including newest browns, greens, grays, blues, also the ultra-fashionable prune shade, at each of the following prices, yard . . . . . . 75c, $1, $1.50, $2 and $2.75

FRENCH AND SILVER GRAY TWEEDS—In plain and over-plaid effects. Very fine suiting for tailor-made gowns, skirts or dresses. Good authority places gray as the leading spring color. New lines at yard .....$1 and $1.25

COIN SPOT WAISTINGS-28-inch Cream Luster, with large coin spot, cardinal, sky, reseda, black and natural. Very special, yard................40c

Gift-Giving Season Is Almost Over.

The season that has brought so much happiness is nearly over. A few New Years gifts will find their way to friends and then we are back to hum-drum every-day life, with needs for blankets, underwear and warm clothing to be supplied. You know our ability to supply these to you at the smallest possible price. We are planning a great January Clearing Sale, which you will hear about later. Bargain-giving will be greater than ever before.

Now Is the Time to Buy a Golf Coat.

It is the most useful garment you can possess.

Golf Coats, this season's style, in cardinal, cream, black and navy, at $2.00.

The jaunty Norfolk Jackets, in same colors, at $3.00

Two specials in Flannelette Nightgowns, well made, warm and cozy. 50e and

Gray Wool Blankets.

We have a clean-up mill lot of Gray Wool Blankets for tomorrow's selling, at 25 per cent discount.

$1.50 pair, worth $2.00—Gray Wool Blankets. $1.75 pair, worth $2.25-Gray Wool Blankets. $2 00 pair, worth $2.50—Gray Wool Blankets. $2.25 pair, worth $2.75—Gray Wool Blankets. $2.50 pair, worth $3.00-Gray Wool Blankets.

Ceetee Underwear, $1.19.

Fine All-Wool Underwear for women, very warm, more hygienic than heavy weight, light on the body, fits the figure, guaranteed unshrinkable. Regular $1.35 a garment, now $1.19.

J. H. Chapman & Co., 126, 128, 128, Dundas St.

Continued from Page Two.

"We tore the verandas down, and we lighting, he said, he didn't provide the License Reduction. moon, but his wise policy re moonlight nights had resulted in many extra lamps being furnished the people statement issued by the hotelkeepers to without increasing the lighting bill. the effect that a reduction of the num ber of liquor licenses in London will rehad intended to be a candidate for the and the Old Boys' reunions.

But he thought that something would of six bars, which afford the city He waited about five minutes, and the silence became oppressive, but not a hard came off the 147 angry women before him.

How little its largery women before him. running along beside the horse for couldn't allow his own business to suf- In some of the bars the hotelmen bus some distance, and keeping up their fer he dropped out of the mayoralty. It some of the bars the hotelmen but cheering. Many enthusiastic cries al- But as sure as sun rises and sets, he sold to half drunken men at from 5 to 1 so were shouted, such as "Good old will be mayor of London some day, cents aplece. Good cigars are not sold Will be mayor of London some day, the late of the was a boy of 13, in Nissouri, Consequently he could not see how the he told an old lady that he was coming into the city to be mayor, and tain places are cut off. As to the state now that she has waited a long time, ment that the proposed reduction will he doesn't want to disappoint her. He for the mayoralty—he guit of his own accommodation for anybody. The fact is

Ald. Cooper Speaks.

Ald. Cooper said it isn't the mayor, his own accord. If the press had given Cooper the credit it had given other aldermen for good work done, Cooper would years ago have been mayor. Ald. Matthews had bragged about the increased revenue of the market house, but why didn't he tell Pacific lines east of Winnipeg will keep how much it cost to fit the building? in touch with headquarters by means He said a 22-mill tax rate is assured of wireless telegraphy. for next year.

Ald. Saunders said that though Ald. contrivance of plaited wicker work, Matthews had taken all the credit for with a hole at the top, through which what No. 8 committee had done, he the occupier crawls at night to sleep. must admit that he (Ald. Matthews) Formed from the trunk of an oak had good men at his back. He also paid a compliment to the first-class ing distinct marks of the stone ax fire department of London. Three years which hollowed it out, was recently ago it was a disgrace, but now it is a unearthed at Acharacle, Argylishire. credit to the city. He had looked af- Scotland. ter the new combination chemical The library of the British Museum wagon while it was being built, and in now contains forty-three miles of other ways had sought to serve the shelves, upon which are 3,860,000 people to the best of his ability. He tries. The collection is growing at the and stood on his record, and asked for the museum adds 276,000 newspapers to support as a workingman. Of Mr. its files. the Cove than at Dundas street Berlin in hot weather.

bridge, and it should be widened there. He said the breakwater should have been run diagonally across from Douglas avenue, instead of north to Mount Pleasant. If this had been done, the wall would have cost $2,000 less. Al his colleagues had been fair this year, and had done their best for the city

Mr. U. A. Buchner asked for the votes f the people as a candidate for alderman Last year he had been defeated by but let a little sunshine in, as we sing in again. He is connected with neither the fulness of the music.

During this time Mr. Lyttleton, the ing of the new main, said 80 per cent London, who has been in business here ex-Colonial Secretary, passed on foot of the fires in London are put out by for many years. A cardinal plank in his through the crowd. But barely anyone the chemical engine. Of the street platform is pure water for London.

> Mr. T. B. Escott spoke on behalf of th slur on the Western Fair and home-coming of Londoners cigarmaking trade will be affected if cer result in the killing of the project for a $500,000 hotel in London, Mr. Escott said this was nonsense. In Bowling Green asked for a bigger vote than ever this year. He paid the fire chief and department a warm compliment, and he declared the local brigades are the best in Canada. He hadn't been pulled at right to live? Six other places have no right to live? Six other places have no right to live? there are too many drinking-places-to ### many so-called hotels now. More Candidates.

Mr. W. T. Hamilton was another alder but the aldermen, who rule in the city citizens for eight years on the board of thall. And if good aldermen are elected, it doesn't matter who is mayor. Nothing can go wrong if the aldermen are all right. No. 1 committee, of which he is a member, is the dumping which he is a member, is the dumping the said the city's business was run loosely. Auditor Jewell had recommend. ground of the council, and knowing loosely. Auditor Jewell had recommended this, he had stayed away from many city hall staff. It was his opinion the meetings. Like Ald, Matthews, he denied that he had been "pulled off" for the mayoralty. He had dropped out of the mayoralty. He had dropped out of spoke briefly.

> When the new census is taken in Germany, women will be employed for the first time to collect the returns Survey camps along the Grand Trunk

The Sari Indians make an odd-shaped tree, a canoe 7 feet 6 inches long, bearhad been led by the nose by nobody, rate of 60,000 a year. Every year, also Put up in tins and bottles. For sale at

Judd's statement that the Cove bridge Pet dogs in sunbonnets and blue is the cause of floods in West London, glass spectacles are to be seen followhe declared that the river is wider at ing their owners through the streets of

STERSHIR

The Name

C TO THE SECOND CONTRACTOR OF THE SECOND CONTR

HOLDROOK

the Label of a Worcestershire Bottle Stamps it as Genuine

England's most famous Worcestershire

Is a Perfect Flavoring with All Kinds of Meats, Salads, Fish and Soups.

PRICE-25 CENTS A BOTTLE AT YOUR GROCER'S

A reputation wide as the Dominion have

Cowan's Cream Bars.

They are really a delicious confection and absolutely

The COWAN CO., Limited, Toronto.

Pure Olive Oil

Imported direct from Italy by Catalano & Sansone any grocery store in the city or at the importers, 292 Dundas street.

Price, 25 cents bottle, or $2 tin.