

Rickard Takes His Pencil In Hand and Discovers He Made $550,000 On Fight

Also Figures That Dempsey Made About $29,000 and Carp $19,500 Per Minute—Expects To Use Arena
For Another Championship Bout.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Tex Rickard figured today that his net profit from the Dempsey-Carpenter fight yesterday would be in the neighborhood of $550,000.

Rickard said he did not expect a final and accurate statement before Wednesday, but that expenses of all kinds would approximate $550,000, and taxes on his share $100,000, while the gross gate receipts were expected to exceed $1,500,000.

It was also figured out that Dempsey earned in the neighborhood of $25,000 per minutes for his ten minutes and 16 seconds of actual fighting. Carpenter's profits as the loser in the contest was approximately $19,500 per minute.

U. S. Gets a Lot.
The United States Government will receive, in one form of taxation or other, a considerable portion of the $200,000 paid Dempsey and the $200,000 which was Carpenter's share of the purse. Government proceeds from the bout will total more than $400,000, revenue officials estimate. The income tax will take about $150,000 of the $300,000 earned by Dempsey, and about $77,000 of Carpenter's share. The federal revenue from the sale of tickets will amount to about $160,000.

Georges Carpenter must pay his entire tax to the United States before sailing for France. Dempsey may pay his tax in four instalments next year, the first being due in March, 1922. Revenue officials have pointed out that Carpenter also is likely to face another stringent income tax on his arrival in France, shrinking still more the earnings of the defeated boxer. Rickard tonight reiterated his intention of using the Jersey City arena for one or more championship bouts hereafter, and the first of these will be put on, but was considering several bouts likely to prove successful ventures. The splendid showing made by Rickard against Dempsey has already resulted in talk of other bouts for the French pugilist, the most attractive of which is a proposed meeting between Rickard and Tom Gibbons of St. Paul. Rickard stated that he thought such a match would be an excellent drawing card, in view of the fact that the boxers were about equally matched in both skill and physique.

Willard or Brennan.
Dempsey is also likely to re-enter the arena in Jersey City on either Labor Day, September 5, or Columbus Day, October 12. While Rickard refused to state definitely the champion's opponent, it is believed that the choice lies between Bill Brennan and Jess Willard. Rickard has indicated that he is favorably inclined toward the Dempsey-Willard match, provided the former champion would agree to put on a "pugilistic comeback."

Willard, in prime physical trim, is generally considered the only heavy-weight boxer who would extend Dempsey to the limit.

DEMPSEY SAYS HE IS READY TO FIGHT WILLARD ANY TIME

Georges Is Looking For Challenge From Light Heavy-weight Boxer.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Jack Dempsey is ready to fight Jess Willard any time the fight can be arranged, Jack Kearns, his manager, announced tonight.

The champion is going west for a good vacation in a few days, and after that, Kearns said, he will be ready to fight anyone who presents himself with the proper credentials.

Went To Church.
Dempsey, happy at his victory over Carpenter and showing no marks of the encounter, passed a quiet day at his friends and fight fans would allow him. He had to give up his suite at the Hotel Belmont, which he occupied with his manager and trainers and seek a room by himself last night, because of the press of visitors. He was up at 7 o'clock this morning and rushed around to the suite to wake up the rest of his entourage. Then he had a hearty breakfast and sauntered off with Mike Trant of Chicago to church for early mass.

The rest of the day he motored around and enjoyed his freedom from training camp discipline.

After a sojourn of a week or ten days, finishing up some business matters and answering hundreds of letters and telegrams of congratulations, Dempsey will leave for his home at Salt Lake City for a long rest.

CARP. WILL NOT RETIRE.
MANHASSET, N.Y., July 3.—The Frenchman will not retire from the ring as a result of his defeat by Dempsey. He will fight any man in the world, excepting the champion whom he admits is his superior. This statement was made today by Francois Descamps, the Frenchman's manager.

"I'll admit, too," added Descamps, "that Jack Dempsey is the greatest heavy-weight who ever lived. But I'll claim that my Georges comes next. Dempsey was too heavy and too powerful for Georges. We will not seek a return match. What we want now is a challenge for the world's light heavy-weight title, which Georges holds by virtue of his victory over Levinson."

The broken bone in Georges' right hand was set today, and he said it felt much better, although it was still swollen and inflamed. The only other mark of any consequence is a cut under his left eye, about two inches in length. "I feel glorious even in defeat," he smiled, "to think that I did what I wanted to do—show 'em that I was game."

"We would like to get a match with Bill Brennan or Tom Gibbons," Descamps said. The doctor says that Georges' hand will be all right with careful nursing. We may remain here in Manhasset for a while. Georges will keep in shape and will be ready if challenged."

Carpenter, through his comrades, told his story of the fight this afternoon, while resting on the front porch. He had been instructed by Wilson and Descamps to beware and let Dempsey force the battle, but just before the opening bell, he said to them: "The American people have been told that I was a game and courageous fighter. I must fight. Watch me!"

During the second round Carpenter said he hit Dempsey with three right hooks and three right uppercuts and that all his power was behind them.

Knew He Was Beaten.
"When he didn't go down under these blows, I knew I could not defeat him," the Frenchman said.

"When I was in the third I felt the pain in my right hand and somehow I could not use it accurately or with power. I got it in several times, but I could tell that it had little effect. Then Dempsey's right hand caught me in the back of the neck, just at the crest of the spinal column."

"My body was numb all over and I thought I was gone, but managed to last the round."

"I felt a little fresher when the bell rang for the fourth, but at the outset Dempsey got to my body and the numbing feeling returned so that I did not feel the blow that floored me. I gritted my teeth and managed to rise, but the next blow, I believe it was a right to my chin, was the end."

"I kept saying to myself: 'Georges, you must get up, you must go on and fight,' but I could not."

"Dempsey fought cleanly and acted like a gentleman all the time."

Waiting For Word From Tex Rickard.

LAWRENCE, Kas., July 3.—Jess Willard, former world heavyweight champion, to whose crown Jack Dempsey succeeded at Toledo, July 4, 1919, will box Dempsey on Labor Day if arrangements for such a bout are made. Willard said last night.

"I have heard nothing of such a bout since last spring," the former champion said, "when a plan was under way for me to box Dempsey March 17. The completion of plans for the Dempsey-Carpenter bout ended that project, and I was promised a bout on Labor Day."

"I'll make no further move until I hear from Tex Rickard, but I'll box Dempsey if the bout is revived."

Willard spent Saturday on his ranch near here directing fifty men in the harvesting of his potato crop. The Jersey City fight went about as he expected it would, he said.
