NO ACCIDENTS OCCUR

The citizens of London took full advantage of the picnic facilities of Springbank Park on Saturday, when no less than seven large outings were held, as well as many smaller ones. The weather was extremely hot, but, nothing daunted, the good people carried on, assisted by copious ream cones and a determination to have a good time regardless of weather conditions. The heat was responsible for one or two calls on the medical first-aid depot in the picnic shelter, but no serious accident or mishap occurred to mar the day The park, beautiful in itself, was given a gay appearance by the brightly-dressed throngs of boys and who moved from one form of ation to another, enjoying emselves to the full.

Possibly the largest picnic on the grounds was that of the C. N. R. carhops on the baseball diamond east of the pavilion, where more than 1.500 railwaymen and their families and iriends spent a most enjoyable after-noon in running off a splendid sports program and the partaking of a sumptuous picnic lunch.

Apart from the race program, two CN.R. teams put up a fast soccer game, the London outfit defeating the Leaside of Toronto boys by a score of 1 to 0. The game was fast throughout, and the picnickers stopped all other sports to watch it. The one goal was scored by Russel.
