AT THE THEATRE

The number of those who poured from the theatre last afternoon was remarkable. There had been a large share of those who wished to see the play of Elaine, or The Clumsy, which had led Elaine into her position, from which she rescued herself with great difficulty. Marion Seely, pleased, selected as the "Bird of Paradise," which she rendered in a capable manner. Happy Sperry, created immense mirth in the theatre, by his comic antics. From the rise of the curtain one continual roar of laughter greeted his illustration of the comic statue. The entire program was a special holiday feature, and all and everyone who saw the entertainment were well pleased.

One of the small band of Scottish volunteers who were with Garibaldi has just passed away in the person of James Charles, baker, Dumbarton. Aberdeen Town Council has decided to engage female laborers to fill vacancies on the tramway system caused by men on service.

Another lot of 18 wounded soldiers have arrived at Aberlour from Aberdeen, and were divided between the V. A. D. and Fleming Hospital.

Storm of Lead Held Haricot Fort

Graphic Account of Allies Victory on Gallipoli Peninsula.

Alexandria, July 1.—The British and French line on the Gallipoli Peninsula from the Aegean to the Dardanelles is confronted by rising ground that culminates in the centre with a flat summit, Achi Baba, 800 feet high. On either side the ground falls away to the sea in ravines and dry water courses called Duzes, which the Turks have had time to make impregnable to any except those superb troops that are now fighting to pass over them. There is no room upon the Gallipoli Peninsula to find peak points, and we are now in the position of having to storm an immensely strong fortress, the advanced works of which by an amazing feat of arms we already hold and the glacis of which has to be crossed before we move forward to the assault upon the bastion of Achi Baba and beyond to the final assault upon the very walls of that fortress.

On June 21 it was determined to straighten the line upon the extreme right and at 1.30 a. m. the preliminary bombardment began. All through the morning the cannonade went on. By noon the second division of French had on the left stormed and captured all the Turkish trenches of the first two lines. Even the Haricot redoubt with its damnable entanglements and maze of communicating trenches was in French hands. On the right, however, the first division, after reaching its objective, had been counter-attacked so effectively that they had fallen back. Again they advanced, again they took the trenches and again they were driven out. It began to look as if the victory upon the left would be fruitless. That position would become an untenable salient and the Haricot redoubt revert to the enemy. At this moment a message was sent to say that the trenches must be captured and when recaptured, held.

ORANGE BLOSSOM WEDDING Meisel—Schramm

The scene of a very pretty High noon wedding was solemnized Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schramm, Hayville, when their daughter Elizabeth was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Almon Meisel of Lang Bros. & Co. Staff, Berlin.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreens and orange blossoms, by Rev. J. James, Berlin, assisted by Rev. Weisale, New Hamburg. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, rendered by Mrs. Carrie Becker, New Hamburg, the bride entered the parlor leaning on her father's arm, looking charming in an exquisite gown of ivory Charmeuse satin with train, trimmed with pearls and edges with seed pearls. She wore a silk embroidered veil, arranged in cap effect with fern, and orange blossoms, carrying a beautiful shower bouquet of cream bridal roses, and orange blossoms. The bride was attended by Miss Mabel Meisel, dressed in pink silk crepe, carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The groom's gift to the bride was cut glass; to the bridesmaid, a pearl necklace; to the groomsmen, a pearl tie.

During the signing of the register, Miss Evelyn Phipps, of Brantford, sang "Because."

Guests to the number of sixty, sat down to a sumptuous dejeuner. The table decorations were carnations, peonies and sinlax. The gifts were numerous and costly showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends.

The young couple left on their honeymoon to Detroit and Ann Arbor Michigan.

The bride travelled in a suit of navy blue suit, and panama hat to match.

After their return they will reside at 10 Mitchell Ave., Berlin.

AT THE GRAND

The Grand Theatre played to two large houses on Dominion Day. The play house was filled last evening, and the best program of the season was offered to them. The five reel paramount picture "After Five" is one of the best comedies that has been seen this season, and is a treat to the most eccentric. A laugh a minute, and a roar every half minute, welcomed this great comedy to the city of Berlin. "After Five" indicate that dear old dad, or Brother Tom, have been carousing, or have been somewhere where wifey does not wish them to be. Their luck fails them in every instance when they attempt to hoodwink those faithful and devoted helpmates. This comedy should not be missed by anyone who has the blues, as this is a sure cure from them.

AT THE STAR

Packed to the doors, and standing room at a premium, was witnessed at the Star on the holiday. The new vaudeville program rivals with those that are now appearing on the whiteways of the vaudeville world, and they come direct to the city. The Laronians, acrobats made their first visit to this city, and they received a royal welcome. Their antics and stage commotions were laughable, and dispelled all gloom, made everyone smile and feel happy. Francis Ford and Grace Cunard, are among the features that were shown at this theatre. "In the King's Palace" they enacted a new role, unfamiliar to the public, but their portrayal of their parts were as good as before. The Black Box is drawing large crowds to see the latest startling events that are shown in the main characters of this play.
