BADE FAREWELL TO CONGREGATION

Rev. S. Lautenschla er Takes

Rev. S. Lautenschla er Takes Formal Leave
The farewell message to the congregation of Alma Street U. B. Church was delivered by the pastor Rev. S.
Leutenschleger, lest Sundey:
In the morning, the service wes opened with the National Anthem and special reference was made to the signing of the Peace Treaty. The pastor termed the Peace as one of vigilance and declared that Germeny had undergone no change of heart as yet. The speaker then spoke from I Theso, 2:20, "For ye are our glory and our joy." He referred to the activity and faithfulness of the people and the progress of the church as his "glory and joy." The congregation donated a well filled purse to the pastor at the close of the service, while Mr. F. A. Shantz, secretary of the church board, reed a letter of presentation and of appreciation for the four years work of the pastor.
In the evening, the pastor gave his farewell sermon. He made a strong appeal for foreign missions, referred to the great programmes of the churches calling for men and money, and seid he believed that God was putting his hand on enough young people to-day, if they hear the call, to tell the gospel story to every man, woman and child on earth, during this generation. He then referred to the second coming of Christ and said that Christ was not coming book to earth to redeem the earth, but for judgment shall He come.
The earth will not be redeemed at His coming by a throne and an iron rod, but must be redeemed by Calvary's Cross. Jesus is not coming back to set up His Kingdom. It was set up in the days of the Kings of the Romans by Calvary and Pentecost, but He will come beck to sum it up, finish it, raise the dead, judge the nations and hend over His Kingdom. It was set up in the days of the Kings of the Romans by
over His Kingdom unto God, the Fether, whence God shell be all in all.
