Mr. King Hedley is so well known down this way that a company under his management is sufficient guarantee that we are getting something above the average.

They have called their convention for June 12th, and ex Governor St. John is to lecture on Prohibition in Amherst on the same day. HALIFAX, May 31st,-There is considerable stir in political circles in Nova Scotia. Sir Charles Tupper's retirement from the Ministry and from Parliament is universally regretted.
Liberals vie with Conservatives in their expressions of regret. Now that Cumberland's old war horse has retired from active political life even his most violent opponents freely admit his great ability, his force of character, admit his great ability, his force of character, his commanding eloquence, and the great things he accomplished for Canada generally and for Nova Scotia especially. But years will elapse before Nova Scotians fully realize the greatness of his lose, and a true appreciation of his power and influence in the public life of this country. To the Liberal Conservatives party in the province his lose is irreparable. And there is no one to take his place. No man in Nova Scotia is fitted to a stand in Sir Charles Tupper's shoes. What man in Canada can occupy the position he has vacated? Sir Charles Tupper's departure from Canada at this time is all the more ture from Canada at this time is all the more It is said that Madame LaTouche has bought the Hewland farm on the Oromocto and will bedie there.

Cumberland has been greatly blessed with elections of late. There will soon have been five elections within six years. Sir Charles Tunnar was elected over Mr. Pines in 1889. Tupper was elected over Mr. Pipes in 1882 When he was appointed High Commissioner the present Judge Townsend was elected by acclamation, and at the last general election Mr. Gilmor Brown and Mies Frances
