

C. Thou safe, beyond, above, we 'neath the star.

L. P. Thou in eternal peace, we 'mid earth's strife.

C. Thou where care hath no name, we where 'tis rife.

L. P. Strange, strange for thee and us, loved, loving ever.

C. Thou by life's deathless fount, we near death's river.

L. P. Thou winning wisdom's lore, we strength to trust.

C. Thou 'mid the Seraphim, we in the dust. Let us pray.

S. L. Asst. Sisters, to your devotions.

Com. of M. Attention, Sir Knights, uncover.

(The C. will then offer the following:)

PRAYER.

Eternal and universal Spirit, with profound sorrow at the thought of mortality, we thank Thee for the Hope of eternal life, and for the blessed assurance that Thou hast not left that Hope unwitnessed amongst men. We thank Thee for the example of our Sister's life. Willingly we received her into the Order, according to Thy Will we cheerfully commend her to Thy
