

St. Andrew's College

"Chestnut Park," Toronto

A Presbyterian Residential and Day School for Boys

Boys are prepared for the Universities and Royal Military College. Full Collegiate work is done. Preparatory Form for Junior Boys, also Separate Residence under charge of Henry F. Meyer, Ph.D., who has had some years' experience in similar work in Repton, England.

The staff is large and efficient. In addition to the Principal, there are six masters, of whom five, with the Principal, live in residence.

The College grounds are over twelve acres in extent. Direct street-car communication with the Union Station. City conveniences, country advantages.

The aim is to develop boys morally, mentally and physically.

Re-opens for Autumn Term on September 10th, 1900. See Home Study Quarterly.

Write for Circular and further information to

Rev. D. Bruce Macdonald, M.A.,
PRINCIPAL

GEO. GOODERHAM,
PRESIDENT

F. H. TORRINGTON,
MUSICAL DIRECTOR

H. N. SHAW, B.A.,
Principal School of Elocution
NELLY BERRYMAN,
Vice-Principal

The... New Year

The year that closed with the summer vacation was the most successful in the history of the College. But our preparations for the new year are on a basis to increase further the success of the past.

For an artistic musical education, this College has ever stood pre-eminent.

- Applications for new Calendar and
- Syllabus, 1900-1901, can be made to
- the Secretary.

College will re-open September 3rd

TORONTO COLLEGE OF MUSIC, Limited
AND SCHOOL OF ELOCUTION

12-14 Pembroke St., Toronto, Canada