

442. The board shall, from time to time, make such regulations as they may deem expedient for the government of the force, and for preventing neglect or abuse, and for rendering the force efficient in the discharge of all its duties. 46 V. c. 18, s. 443.

443. The constables shall obey all lawful directions, and be subject to the government of the board, and shall be charged with the special duties of preserving the peace, preventing robberies and other felonies and misdemeanors, and apprehending offenders; and shall have generally all the powers and privileges, and be liable to all the duties and responsibilities, which belong, by law, to constables duly appointed. 46 V. c. 18, s. 444.

444. The council shall appropriate and pay such remuneration for and to the respective members of the force, as may be required by the board of commissioners of police, and shall provide and pay for all such offices, watch-houses, watch-boxes, arms, accoutrements, clothing and other necessities as the board may from time to time deem requisite and require for the payment, accommodation and use of the force; but this section shall not affect or apply to any city in which by the special Act of incorporation thereof provision is made for the appointment, control and management of the police by the council. 46 V. c. 18, s. 445.

445. The council of every town not having a board of commissioners of police shall, and the council of every incorporated village may appoint one chief constable and one or more constables for the municipality; and the persons so appointed shall hold office during the pleasure of the council. 46 V. c. 18, s. 446.

NOTE.—It is the duty of a Town Council not having a board of commissioners to appoint one chief constable and one or more constables for the municipality; a Village Council may do so.

446. Where in a town, there was on the 24th day of March, 1874, a board of commissioners of police, constituted under the Acts then in force respecting Municipal Institutions in this Province, the council of the said town may, by by-law, dissolve and put an end to the board, and there-
