

Sparkles.

A BOTTLE of milk which a Baltimore chemist was testing, the other day, exploded with great force and nearly killed him. It was probably from a kicking cow.

A HINT to old bachelors.—Mr. Oldbeau (to young rival, before young lady to whom they are both attentive): "Why, bless me, Charley, how you've grown!"

CAUTION.—Any liniment or other medicine that cannot be taken internally is unsafe for ordinary use. Hingyard's Yellow Oil, the prompt pain reliever, is safe and reliable for all aches and pains, and can be swallowed as well as applied.

"JULIUS, do you know the tenth commandment?" "Yes'm." "Very well. Recite it." "I can't." "But you said just now you knew it." "Oh! yes. I know it when I see it."

A LIMIT to patience.—Waitress (to Dr. Pullem, the dentist, who is greatly annoyed by her constant use of his title in addressing him): "Tomatoes, doctor?" Dr. Pullem: "Thanks, no." Waitress: "Corn, doctor?" Doctor: "No! Dentist!"

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is "a combination and a form indeed" for healing and curing diseases of the throat, lungs and chest. It cures a cough by loosening and cleansing the lungs, and allaying irritation; thus removing the cause, instead of drying up the cough and leaving the disease behind.

AN artist was asked: "Is sculpture difficult?" The artist answered: "Why, bless you, no. You have only to take a block of marble and a chisel, and knock off all the marble you don't want."

MOTHER (making up the list): I don't know, Clara, about inviting young Mr. De Hobson. His reputation is far from spotless. Daughter: But his gloves are spotless, mamma, and he dances beautifully.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER.—Its effects are almost instantaneous, affording relief from the most intense pain. It soothes the irritated and inflamed parts, and gives rest and quiet to the sufferer. It is eminently the people's friend, and every one should have it with them, or where they can put their hands on it in the dark, if need be.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.
Tonic for Overworked Men.

Dr. J. C. Wilson, Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used it as a general tonic, and in particular in the debility and dyspepsia of overworked men, with satisfactory results."

"BROMLEY, is it true that you lost your hired girl?" "Yes, Mr. Dusenberry; she died." "Ah! What of?" "Corroboration." "Of what?" "Corroboration. She wanted to know whether there was really any risk in lighting the fire with coal oil."

DURING a discussion of religious topics young Brown said: "I tell you that if the other animals do not exist after death neither will man. There is no difference between man and a beast." And good old Jones mildly replied: "If anybody could convince me of that it would be you, Brown."

Nervous Debilitated Men

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltaic Belt, with Electric Suspensory Appliances, for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Debility, Loss of Vitality and Manhood, and all kindred troubles, for many other diseases. Complete restoration of health, vigor and manhood guaranteed. No risk is incurred. Illustrated pamphlet, with full information, terms, etc., mailed free by addressing Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

AN Irishman says he can see no earthly reason why women should not become medical men.

AN old lady enters a drug store and inquires the cost of te deums. In utter surprise the clerk exclaims: "Te deums!" "Yes," responds the old lady. "I'm mortally afraid of the cholery, an' if they don't cost too much I'd like to have some in the house. I hear they use them in Spain for the cholery."

MRS. CAIT. NORMAN, of Millbridge, Ontario, writes, Aug. 17 1871:—"ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM cured my son of a severe attack of bronchitis of the lungs. He took no other medicine, the BALSAM acted wonderfully, taking away the fever, at once operating on the bowels, and sending matter up from off the lungs, in appearance dreadful beyond expression. There are several others who reside in this neighbourhood, and have been cured by ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM, who would give certificates if asked."

PEDDLER (to woman at the door): "Can I see your mother, miss?" Woman: "My mother?" Peddler: "Yes, miss, the lady of the house. I have some beautiful articles that she will be glad to see." Woman (graciously): "Well—er—I am the lady of the house, sir, and if you will step into the parlour I will be glad to look at what you have got."

POLITICS TOO MUCH FOR HIM.

A lady on Fifth Avenue, New York, quickly summoned a doctor:

"Oh, doctor, my husband is nearly dead. He attended a caucus last night. He made four speeches and promised to be with his fellow citizens again to-day. But oh, doctor, he looks nearly dead."

"Has he been in politics long?"

"No, only last year. He worked hard for James McCaulay's election."

"He will get well, madam! He has a stomach for any disease, if he worked for him!"

Political life of short or long duration, is very exhausting, as is evident from the great mortality which prevails among public men. Ex. U. S. Senator, P. K. Bruce, who has been long in public life, says:

"The other day, when stepping into a car at a crossing, I found Dr. within, who eyed me up and down in a surprised way, remarking:

"Why, Senator, how well you look!"

"Well, I feel pretty well," I answered.

The doctor uttered an incredulous reply, when the Senator told him, in answer to an inquiry, that it was Warner's safe cure which accomplished for him what the profession had failed to do. Senator Bruce says his friends are very much astonished at this revelation of power.—The Globe.

*Overwhelmingly Defeated.

LONGFELLOW and Fields were making a short pedestrian tour some years ago, when, to their surprise, an angry bull stood in the pathway, evidently determined to demolish both poet and publisher. "I think," said Fields, "that it will be prudent to give this reviewer a wide margin." "Yes," replied the poet, "it appears to be a disputed passage."

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and reliable cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NORRIS, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N.Y.

"MOTHER," said a young wife, "would you mind cooking the dinner to-day? It would please John, I know. He complains so much of the new girl that I shall discharge her the moment I can get another." "Certainly," replied the old lady, cordially. At dinner John said to his wife: "Mary, the new girl seems to be getting worse and worse."

THE HARD WORKED MAN of business, toiling day by day, with little chance for rest, should take occasionally ROBINSON'S PHOSPHORIZED EMULSION, to give activity to the brain and strength to the constitution, and thereby prevent the attack of fever and other destroying diseases.
