The University buildings, Toronto, were destroyed by fire on the evening of 2nd mo., 14th. The loss is estimated at over half a million dollars. The libra j, consisting of about 35,000 costly volumes, which will cost $150,000 to replace; the museum, with its invaluable specimens and curiosities, the valuable documents of Dr. Wilson, president of the University, chemical apparatus, mathematical instruments, furniture, &c., were all destroyed. Hundreds of our young men are mourning over the loss of their Alma Mater. It will be rebuilt at once, better than ever.

Our friend, Isaac Wilson, of Bloomfield, Ontario, we are informed, has arrived home safely after his extended religious visit through parts of Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and New York. He was accompanied by his wife. Was gone 49 days, and, although laid up with the prevailing influenza for several days, he attended 44 meetings, and travelled over 2,200 miles.

We are pleased to be ab'e to announce an increase in the number of subscribers to the Young Friends' Review over one year ago. The increase, though not great, is quite en couraging, and the names are still coming in. We hope every month will add to the list. We wish again to call the attention of our readers to the announcement we made last month regarding isolated Friends, by which we send 20 or more copies one year at 25 cents each, on receipt of names and money from any meeting of Friends in See last month's issue. America.

The fittieth anniversary of the wedding day of Jonathan R. and Catherine Page was happily celebrated by their children and friends on the 4th day, the 12th uit., at their home, Pelham Corners, Ontario.

ERRATA—In our editorial for last month, on page 25, we are made to say, that "We believe their are more of our Friends who will not enjoy or endorse the views expressed in the sermon we publish this month." "Their" should read "there," and "more" should read "none." We strive not to publish anything but what all our Friends enjoy, and we hope, after due consideration, endorse.

Mary Freeman, whose obituary appeared in last month's issue, was aged 93 years, instead of 73 as there printed.

OBITUARY.

TITUS.—After a brief illness, which developed into bronchitis, 1st mo., 13th, 1890, at No. 128 West Kennedy street, Syracuse, N.Y., Israel J. Titus departed this life, in his 81st year.

Deceased was the youngest son of Israel Titus and Betty Halsted, born
