St. Gregory's Church Oshawa

St. Gregory's Church Oshawa.

In the flourishing Town of Oshawa stands one of the prettiest churches in America, built to replace one of the oldest. Catholic churches in Ontario, which was known far and wide as St. Gregory's. The new church is an upto-date building, lighted with electricity and in every way a tribute to the business skill of the pastor, Rev. Father Jeffocti, and to the devotion of the people for whose spiritual needs it has been erected. To assist in paying off the balance of the debt upon this church a party of Torontonians went down there last Theeday and gave a most enjoyable concert. Amongst those contributing were Miss Nellie-James, who last week charmed the audisones at the Princess by her artistic singing of "Bon Bolt" in "Trilby", Miseese Mokama and Griffin and Meeser. Coltam J. J. Costello, Wickett Liabor and Phillips. Multiple Wickett, Liabor and Phillips.

St. Poter's Bazaar closed on last Saturday occuing after a successful week. Owing to the demand on our orsace, we are prevented from giving a list of the prize win ters but will be able to do so in our next issue.

Farewell to Lord and Lady Aberdeen.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen, who are about to leave Canada after a stay that has been as happy as it has been putilished to the country in a national souse, are coming to Toronto to take fareweil of the people. Nothing could be more appropriate than that the Irish Catholics of this city should manifest on this occasion their feelings of esteem and respect for the departing representatives of the Crown. There is no need to speak of the ties that unite the harl and Cown. There is no need to speak of the ties that unite the harl and countess of Abordeen to the Irish race. In Canada as in Ireland they have dispisyed the most trank and succere friendship. The Irish Catholics of Mentreal and Ottawa have taken special means of recognizing this fact, and in the same spirit it is to be hoped our people in Toronto will generally avail themselves of the arrangements made by the C. Y. L. A. and affiliated secthemselves of the arrangements made by the C. Y. L. I. A. and affiliated societies for a reception to the Countess on Friday evening. It will be the last opportunity.

MONTBEAL PREPARING A GRAND DEMON STEATION.

MONTERAL, Oct. 27.—The Irish citizens of Montreal, represented by several of their leading organizations, are preparing a demonstration in honore for paring a demonstration in honore for paring a demonstration in honore for their approaching departure from the Dominion. The event will take place at Windsor Hall on the evening of November 9, when two addresses will be presented. It will be remembered that Earl Fitzwilliam was the first ever honored in this manner. His broad liberal views, his hatred of the obnoxious penal code which made Ireland the battle ground of sectarian and roligious bigotry, endeared him to the Catbotic population of Ireland. Since then there has been one, and one only who gained such a warmth in the hearts of the Irish people, and that was heraided through the world at the downfall of the Gladstone Government in 1886, when the present Earl and Countess of Aberdeen were drawn through the stroets of Dub lin by willing hands and accompanied by a weeping multitude of representatives of every county in Ireland, on their departure from Kingston Owing to the interest taken in the affair by the Rev. Father Quinlyman of St. Patrick's, the reception tendered the Imperial representatives will be on a large scale. That gentleman convented a meeting of the delegates of the various Iriah Catholic societies on last Monday evening At that moeting the delegates present were authorized to add to their number and a final meeting will be held on Friday evening when addresses appropriate to the consciou will be drafted. The addresses to the Countess appropriate to the consciou will be drafted. The addresses to the Countess appropriate to the consciou will be drafted. Death of Miss M. A. Walsh.

It is with doep sympathy that we announce the death of an esteemed and lovable young lady who had a large circle of friends among the readers of Ture Registra. Miss Margarct Agatha, walsh, daughter of Mr. James J. Walsh, and niece of Rev. F. Walsh, C.S. B., was called to the better life on October 22. She was only 23 years of ago. This gentle girl will be missed both in Torouto and Oshawa. She was for nine years organist in St. Gregory's Church in the latter place, and it is true to say that she was loved by all who knew her there. In her winning personality there was united with a natural gentleness of disposition the dignifying influence of a thorough Catholic education. In Ushawa she lived at her home of her anni, who loved her as a daughter. Miss Walsh. and no been in strong health for some three distances of the strong health for some strong health fo

University Extension Lectures.

University Extension Lectures.

There is on the part of our university educationists a streamous and landable endeavor to bring by whater called University Extension Lectures many of the subjects on their curriculum within the reach of those who, however desirous they may be, cannot make a regular University Course. We feel that we should not be behind in such an undertaking This is the more imperative upon us because our young professional Catholics have had little chance to be trained along the lines of Catholic Philosophy. The consequence is that the great foundations underlying the psychological and other principles of our religion are entirely wanting or are too often replaced by the shifting saud of false material and scopical philosophy. In this intellectual centre of Teronio we hope to gather around us a certain number, be it small or great, of Catholic principles will be able to reader a reason of the falth within them. As an altionals and a beginning we have mapped the state of the falth within them. As an altionals and a beginning of twenty four the course. The lectures will be delivered in the basement of 81 Basil's Church, Farry, LLD., St. Michael's Collance Tearnet and the proper such as the charge for the course.
