CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.

WINDSOR-METEGHAN.

The year just closing will be a memorable one in the Diocess of Halifax for the number of Churches that have been commenced, improved, or cirlarged. For some time past we have had the pleasure of recording almost every week some new instance, in this respect, of the zeal of the Cleray and the piety of the faithful. From Manudie on the borders of New Brunswick to Pubnico at the South Western extremity of Nova Scotia, all is animation and enthusiasm; and when we consider the great depression of the times, the fact speaks loudly for the religious spirit of the Catholics of Nova Scotia. This week we hear that the Catholics of Windsor have met, and in accordance with the Bishop's earnest recommendation, have resolved to give something hke a Church-like appearance to their present Place of Worship. Amongst other improvements they purpose the eruction of a Tower and Spire, which will no doubt add greatly of the beauty of the present building. Aready has a subscription list been opered, and various Catholics have put down their names. Their contributions are small it is true, but we do not despair of the accomplishment of the good work, forwe know there are Catholics on the list wh could, and will give any sum in reason the may be required. We therefore, despite the present limited subscription, look uan the new Tower and Spire of St. John the Evangelist's Church at Windsor, surmounted by a glorious, glittering Cross Haire Comau, Junr. as un fait accompli. The names of the Pic Caumau following subscribers have been already sent to us, and when it shall be forwarded by our Correspondent we will publish the remainder of the List with great Anseline type. the remainder of the List with great pleasure :-

Rt Rev Dr. Walsh, £5; Messrs. John Doran, Richard Hackett, John Jourdan, John McBride, George I'mlay, Dennis Hanley, Peter Dawson, Thos Cashman, Thos Proy, Edward Barron, Jas. Carter, Hugh Slone, and Edward Hayes, 10 shillings each; James McGuire, Patk. Mulcahy, Patk. McLaughlin, Michael Rooney, William Tommy, Denis Donovan, Thomas Carroll, Eugene McGarry, and John Lawlor, 7s 6d each; Jos. Matfield, Simon Chapman, Francis Sheridan, Patrick McEvoy, Pairick O'Brien, William Ward, Stephen Hughes, Timothy Brawders, Thomas Collins, Michael McWilliams, Patrick Tobin, William Lee, James Byrne, Michael Tuohey, Martin Mechan, Patrick Hayes, Patk. Byrne, Matthew Quinlan, James Mahony, Peter Sheridan, Richd. Griffin, and Daniel Sullivan, 5 shillings each; and, last, not least, a few Catholic soldiers, 15 shillings.

From Windsor we proceed to Meteghan, upwards of 150 miles to the Westward, where by accounts which we have just received, another Meeting has been held for the purpose of carrying into effect all the improvements suggested by the Bishop at the Visitation in September last. These, amongst other things, include the building of an addition to the Church which has become too small for the faithful, and for the due celebration of the venerable rites of our Religion, by his Lordship in the same district. The late CharlesMcCarthy of Meteghan, with his wonted generosity wherever the interests of the Catholic Religion were concerned, bequeathed the sum of £50 for improving the Church of St. Maude at Meteghan. Dr. Walsh has promised £10 more, and from the spirit evinced at the recent Meeting by the worthy Catholies at Meteghan, we have no doubt that they will accomplish to the letter, the instructions left by the Bishop, and that rendy subscribed to the new church of the credit of the Catholics of New York, confess also. Ah do confess, he is report-St. Vincent. We would beg to direct the special attention of some of our Windsor friends to the handsome sum appended to the following names, for building an addition to the Church at Meteghan :-5 Ō Issac Robichau U 2 10

CATHOLICITY IN THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK FREEMAN.

We have lately received a file of our New York contemporary for which we feel much obliged. For several weeks previous not a single copy of the journal had reached Halifax, and we were thus ignorant of many interesting events which have occurred in that quarter.

Not only the Rev. Dr. Forbes, but also a younger Clergyman, the Rev. Mr. Presalthough another Church-St. Vincent ton. has conformed to the Catholic of Paul, was recently erected and blessed Church. The conversion of these Rev. gentlemen had naturally produced great ensation amongst the Protestants of Gotham. The consecration of the magnificent new church of St. Bridget in Tompkins Square is another remarkable indication of the alarming growth of Popery:' It seems that the beautiful Church of St. Peter's, built on the site of the oldest Catholic Church in New York, had, in the hands of lay Trustees, fallen into an overwhelming amount of debt, the latter portion of which was

has lately taken up this almost hopeless case, and from all appearances is likely to succeed in setting matters to rights. though the task he has undertaken is so formidable and gigantic, that few but himself would attempt it. Many of the Church Creditors were poor Catholics who lent their all on the faith of the Trustees, and who are now without a penny in the world. The Officiating Clergymen of St. Peter's have announced that they will serve without any salary in order to husband the resources for the payment of the debt, and the congregation have promised to co-operate in every way with the Bishop for the purpose of securing the beauteous Temple. We fervently hope they may succeed. St. Peter's Church is not the only one that has been runned by the uncanonical interference of laymen in matters for which they are totally incompetent.

We published some time ago in the Cross an account of a suit respecting the Rev. Mr. Bayley, the Secretary of Bishop Hughes, who was cut off by his grandfather from his rights of inheritance to a large fortune, in consequence of having become a Roman Catholic. Mr. Bayley was formerly a Protestant Episcopalian Clergymen in New York, and is most deservedly esteemed amongst a numerous circle of friends and acquaintance. He applied to the Superior Court for a restitution of his rights, and has partially succeeded. The able opinion of Judge Duer who decided the case has been published, and we extract a passage from the close of it which is highly creditable to the learned functionary. Speaking of the Rev. Mr. Bayley he says; that 'he is not to be blamed, but commended, that in order to save himself from the guilt of insincerity he has followed, at the sacrifice of his interests, the dictates of his conscience, and God forbid that such a step should ever be thought to dissolve the bonds of Kindred.'

From the proceedings of the late convention in New York, it would appear that the Episcopalian Church of the United States is fast going to the dogs. Not many years since it was the most respectable amongst the Protestant sects, but it is now sadly 'fallen from its high estate.'

The Rev. Mr. Waldron of Philadelphia another Convert to our Holy Faith, has undertaken the editorship of the Catholic Herald in that city. He announces in his opening article that his family and nost of his dear friends are Protestants, a prays them not to be offended at any of which he may publish in defence the it he conscientiously believes to be

We believe can be of what will an any Protestant we therefore beg leagur readers, and sidious advice. We are decline his insense for his exhibition of sorry in one there be one thing moremper, for if which we detest, it is Religh another ence. The best return which windifferfor the compliment to our colly make which this fiery Epistle concludewith append another remark, or two anel to aforesaid case of the Mannings.

For three hundred years has the Church of England been crying down Confession, and laughing at the ignorant Papists for practising so degrading an observance. Is it not passing strange then that the Chaplain and all the authorities should have recently taken so much trouble to ed to have said. Now we ask is there not something very absurd and inconsistent in all this on the part of Protestanta? Or if the human heart invariably seeks for consolation by pouring forth its sorrows and crimes into a friendly ear, and teels a degree of comfort after it has thus unburthened itself, as in the case of Manning and other great culprits, why sneer at the Papists for practising Confession? It is thus that Protestants themselves are forced to give unwilling testimony in favor of our
