GALT TEMPERANCE HOTEL.

FRANCIS McILROY begs to call the attention of the public to the above Establishment, which he has fitted up at a great expense; he hopes that the accommodations will give general satisfaction, and is determined nothing shall be wanting on his part to make his guests comfortable. Lunch, and hot coffee at all hours.

(*) There is a Livery Stable attached to the premises. F. M'I. has on hand for sale an assortment of temperance publications, medals, &c. &c.

Galt, March 28, 1845.

BRITISH ARMS, OPPOSITE THE OLD MARKET, LONDON, C. W.

S. T. PROBETT begs leave to return his sincere thanks to the public in general, for the liberal patronage extended to him for the last three years, and now begs leave to announce to the public that he has re-fitted the same establishment as a TEMPERANCE HOTEL, where travellers can be accommodated comfortably and quietly, he having given up the Bar business, in the place of which he has substituted a Produce and Provision Store. In adopting this altered line of business, he trusts to a liberal public at large for their patronage, and hopes by strict attention to merit a liberal support.

Coffee and Tea at all times. Chops, Steaks, or Cold Lunch, on the shortest notice, as usual.

Good Stabling. Oats by the bushel.

London, C. W., February 18, 1845.
