PARISH NOTES.

Several changes have taken place in the parish during the last three months and many houses have changed hands. Mr. Phillips, our organist, has removed to 90 Beverley St. and the parish has lost both Mrs. Francis and Mrs. H. C. Osborne. As it is very difficult for the Rector to know all the changes that take place, it would be of great service if members of the congregation would notify him when new houses are taken or new families move into the parish.

By kindness of Miss Greene, a bed-rest and invalid's table have been placed at the disposal of the parish. Applications should be made to the Rectory.

During the summer months two former members of the Sunday-School, Ethel Meyers and Nettie Nash, have been married, and two members of the Chancel Guild, Florence Scarth and Helen Macdonald. While wishing all of them every happiness, we cannot help also congratulating ourselves that only one of them has left Toronto. Ottawa is not so very far. We also warmly congratulate Capt. Wyatt on the result of his travels and hope that Mrs. H. F. Wyatt will not be less happy in Toronto because it has so little of the beauty of Lochnagar. The choir has sustained another loss in Mr. Cave-Browne-Cave's departure for Quebec where, no doubt, he will find a place in the old Cathedral. We noticed, with pleasure, that Mr. Alec Ireland and Mr. Blanchford took their old places in the choir during a summer visit to Toronto.

By the time the next magazine is issued we hope to report some solution of the coal problem and that our usual Parochial Guilds can resume their winter's work in some assurance of warmth. In the meantime the Sunday School is going on and is in great need of two more Sunday School teachers and also of some one to take the place of Mrs. Francis, whose departure from the parish leaves the Infant Class without a head. Is there no one who could offer to tell Bible stories and teach hymns to these little children?
