

JUNE CONTENTS.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

MA LEETLE CABANE, a French Canadian poem, by Dr. William Henry Drummond. With Illustrations by D. F. Thomson.

A ROMANCE THAT FAILED, a humorous story, by William R. Stewart, of the Montreal Star Staff. With illustrations by a Canadian Artist.

THE CHINAMAN IN THE HOUSEHOLD, by Walter C. Nichol, Editor of the Vancouver Province. This is an interesting article in itself and because of the agitation now going on looking to the exclusion of John Chinaman from British Columbia.

THE CITY ON THE SASKATCHEWAN, an article descriptive of Edmonton, by Bleasdel Cameron. Numerous typical illustrations.

A TRIP TO MEXICO, by Laura M. Boulton, a Canadian lady whose eyes have seen things. She describes Zacatecas, an old mining centre, its people and its mountains; the Shrine of Santa Maria; Guanajuato, another mining town in the hills, noted for its catacombs; Queretero, where Maximilian made his last stand; the Canal of Nochistongo; and the City of Mexico in all its various Phases. Numerous Photographs.

TWENTY YEARS ON THE WAR PATH, by Frederic Villiers, the famous war correspondent and artist. This series of wonderful descriptions will be concluded with the August number.

THE WEST INDIAN NEGRO OF TO-DAY, by H. G. DeLisser, a member of the Institute of Jamaica and a close observer of the black races. This article is valuable as a side-light on the great problem, of civilizing the backward races, now confronting the Anglo-Saxon Peoples.

A NEW POET AND A NEW PLAY, by E. R. Peacock, English Master in Upper Canada College. This new poet is Stephen Phillips, and his new play is entitled "Paolo and Francesca."

THE SALVAGE OF THE SANTA MARIE, by W. A. Fraser. This author's stories, which are in great demand in London and New York, are published exclusively in THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE—no other Canadian paper having the right to use them in this country.
