By Frederick William Faber, D. D. CONTENTS.

The Title and Table of Contents suggests the character of this work, which the Rev. Author designates in the following Dedication: "This Treatise on the Sacred Infancy of our Most Dear and Blessed Redeemer, is laid with the most Tender Devotion, the most Humble Confidence, Reverential Worship, at the Feet of Saint Joseph, the Spouse of Mary, and the Great Foster-Father of on: Lord."

The name of the distinguished Author, whose Works have already become so popular in England and this country, as well as on the Continent, where they have been translated, and met with an immense sale, is sufficient invite attention to this past production of his genius, learning and piety.

"Like Father Faher's other Works, it abounds in passages of rare learning, exquisite beauty, graceful mager, and most tender piety. To at least many of the 50,000 who have read his other Works, particulary his "All for Jesus" this last production of his genius, and still more of his deep, active love for that same ever blessed Saviour of men, will be a more than welcome visitor; an offering better than treasures of gold and silver. If any were at this moment, when thrones are crumbling, and nations are falling to pieces or being humbled to the dust, it is in the stable, and by the crib of the Babe of Bethlehem, that the proud and the wise of the world may learn the worth of the saying: Vanity of vanities, and all is vanity; except to love God, and to serve Him

If the power to conceive and convey to others the sublime, and at the same time, the most practical truths that can interest the human mind, be a title to the homage of men, then has Father Faber established for himself a claim, which no length of years nor change of circumstances can efface.
