VANCOUVER DEBENTURE BY-LAWS

The ratepayers will on June 19 vote on eight money by-laws providing for the expenditure of $1,425,000, and the Property Owner's Association has given notice that it will oppose them on the ground that the Provincial Government refused to allow any broadening of taxation and that therefore the taxation load on property is at the maximum tolerable at present. The by-laws to be submitted are as follows:

For replacing defective and inadequate plumbing and ventilating equipment in schools, $80,000.

For providing furniture and equipment for new school buildings, $15,000.

For the construction of new school buildings, $60,000.

For technical school, $150,000.

For erection of buildings, alterations and equipment for a nurses' home and a maternity hospital for General Hospital, $500,000.

Street by-law, $150,000. The council raised this amount from $100,000.

For extension of waterworks system, $120,000. The council cut $180,000 from the by-law as originally brought in.

For erection of infectious diseases hospital, $350,000.
