

Order Paper Questions

DEFENCE INDUSTRY PRODUCTIVITY PROGRAM

Question No. 2,487—Mr. Forrestall:

For each of the past five years under the defence industry productivity program (a) how many companies received funding and how many repaid the funding (b) what was the amount paid to companies and what was the amount repaid by companies?

Hon. Herb Gray (Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce): In so far as the Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce is concerned:

DIP Funding ($ millions)

Year	No. of Companies	Vote 10 Contribution	No. of Companies	Vote L-30 Loans	Total Contributions and Loans
1976/77	63	$44.9	38	$5.5	$50.4
1977/78	53	43.2	33	4.3	47.5
1978/79	68	52.2	45	6.0	58.2
1979/80	87	57.9	61	14.2	71.8
1980/81	68	94.9	44	21.4	116.3

DIP repayments

Year	No. of Companies	Contributions	No. of Companies	Loans	Total Repayments
1976/77	6	$ 398,558.28	153	$5,860,488.88	$ 6,259,047.16
1977/78	6	2,930,570.52	128	4,792,362.68	7,722,933.20
1978/79	4	3,260,052.10	126	5,037,626.50	8,297,678.60
1979/80	4	605,566.30	158	5,697,811.15	6,303,377.45
1980/81	4	6,121,897.00	120	5,907,721.89	12,029,618.89

Loans by definition are repayable, these loans are interest free. Contributions up to 50 per cent of project costs are repayable only when profits are deemed to be above fair and reasonable. Any contributions beyond 50 per cent of project costs are repayable on a formula basis. Hence, loan repayments normally exceed contribution repayments.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE—COST OF BOOKLETS

Question No. 2,499—Mr. Stewart:

1. Did Graphic Realm Ltd. receive $148,552 from the Department of Justice for the provision of saddle-stitched booklets and, if so, what was the (a) title of the booklet (b) cost per booklet (c) number printed?

2. To whom were the booklets distributed?

Mr. David Smith (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): I am informed by the Departments of Justice and Supply and Services as follows: DSS awarded a contract, on behalf of the Department of Justice, to Graphic Realm Ltd., for an amount of $148,552. Due to amendments to the number of pages and the increase in quantity the value of the contract increased to $217,718.80.

(a) Title of booklets	(b) Cost per booklet	(c) Number printed
The Working Person	30.4 cents	306,000
Small Business	40.7 cents	306,000

2. The booklets are distributed, on request, to individuals, groups, associations, and through Canadian Unity Information Office travelling exhibitions.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE—COST OF FOLDERS

Question No. 2,500—Mr. Stewart:

1. Did McLaren, Morris and Todd Ltd. receive $81,383 from the Department of Justice for folders and, if so, what was the (a) nature of the folder (b) cost per folder?

2. How were the folders utilized?

Mr. David Smith (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): I am informed by the Departments of Justice and Supply and Services as follows: On behalf of the Department of Justice, DSS awarded a contract to McLaren, Morris & Todd Ltd. for the amount of $81,383, covering four folders. Due to an increase in quantities, the value of the contract increased to $87,968.99.

1. (a) Nature of folders

1 Our Country

2 Our Natural Wealth

3 Hidden Treasures

4 Opportunities and Challenges

(b) Cost per folder 6.84 cents.

2. The folders are distributed, on request, to individuals, groups, schools, organizations, and through the Canadian Unity Information Office travelling exhibitions.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE—COST OF BOOKLETS

Question No. 2,502—Mr. Stewart:

1. Did Imprimerie Canadian Gazette receive $67,103 from the Department of Justice for saddle-stitched booklets and, if so, what was the (a) title of the booklet (b) cost per booklet (c) number printed?

2. To whom were the booklets distributed?

Mr. David Smith (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): I am informed by the Departments of Justice and Supply and Services as follows: DSS awarded a contract, on behalf of the Department of Justice, to Imprimerie Canadian Gazette for the amount of $67,103 for saddle-stitched booklets. Due to the result of additional pages and overtime, the value of the contract increased to $85,386.49.

1. (a) Title of the booklet—The Senior Citizen;

(b) Cost per booklet—27.9 cents;

(c) Number printed 305,835.

2. The booklets are distributed, on request, to individuals, groups, organizations, and through the Canadian Unity Information Office travelling exhibitions.