

Supply

we have discussed in the House Leaders' meeting that will be brought forward. Obviously, the reporting of Bills in committees will have an effect on the order of precedence here. We will monitor the legislation from time to time.

Some Hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Hnatyshyn: Mr. Speaker, I originated the word "monitor". It was such a popular word, it was included in the Budget. We will monitor the progress being made on this legislation and when other matters are reported from committee and, indeed, when other items which have been discussed with the opposition House Leaders are introduced in the House, there may be a change in the sequence.

We look forward to making progress on the hours that have been indicated so that we will be able to adjourn on June 28 according to Standing Orders.

BUSINESS OF SUPPLY

ALLOTTED DAY, S.O. 62—NO-CONFIDENCE MOTION—
INDEXATION OF OLD AGE SECURITY PENSIONS

The House resumed consideration of the motion of Mr. Tobin:

That this House urges the Government to commit itself now to maintain the present system of full indexation of Old Age Security pensions after January 1, 1986.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Charest): It being 5.50 o'clock p.m., it is my duty to interrupt these proceedings and put every question necessary to dispose of the supply proceedings now before the House under the provisions of Standing Order 62(10).

[Translation]

Mr. Tobin, seconded by Mr. Nunziata, moved:

That this House urges the Government to commit itself now to maintain the present system of full indexation of Old Age Security pensions after January 1, 1986.

[English]

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Charest): Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

Some Hon. Members: No.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Charest): All those in favour of the motion please say yea.

Some Hon. Members: Yea.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Charest): All those opposed please say nay.

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Charest): In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five Members having risen:

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Charest): Call in the Members.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Tobin), which was negated on the following division:
