

Mr. Martin then, by leave of the House, presented a Bill, No. 237, An Act to amend the Old Age Pensions Act, which was read the first time.

By leave of the House, the said Bill was read the second time, considered in Committee of the Whole, reported without amendment, read the third time and passed.

The Bill No. 190 (Letter Z-3 of the Senate), intituled: "An Act respecting Oil or Gas Pipe Lines (as amended by the Standing Committee on Railways, Canals and Telegraph Lines), was considered in Committee of the Whole, reported without further amendment, considered as amended, and ordered for third reading at the next sitting of the House.

The House then resumed the adjourned Debate on the proposed motion of Mr. Abbott: That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair for the House to resolve itself again into Committee of Ways and Means, and on the proposed motion of Mr. Macdonnell (Muskoka-Ontario), in amendment thereto, and on the proposed motion of Mr. Coldwell, in amendment to the said proposed amendment.

And the Debate still continuing, the said Debate was, on motion of Mr. McKay, adjourned.

By leave of the House, on motion of Mr. Cleaver, it was ordered,—That the Standing Committee on Banking and Commerce be empowered to sit while the House is sitting, and that its quorum be reduced from fifteen to ten members.

By leave of the House, Mr. Bertrand (Prescott), from the Standing Committee on Standing Orders, presented the Fourth Report of the said Committee, which is as follows:—

Your Committee has examined the petition of Raymond Lees Hughes, and others, of Toronto, Ont., for an Act to incorporate The British American Pipe Line Company, and the report made thereon by the Examiner of Petitions for Private Bills on April 27, stating that while the requirements of Standing Order 95 are in process of being met, they have not been fully complied with.

Evidence by statutory declaration has been filed that the notice of intention to apply to Parliament is now in process of publication in newspapers and The Canada Gazette as required by Standing Order 95.

Your Committee finds, however, that the notice has not appeared for the required period of four weeks although arrangements have been made for complete publication.

Your Committee recommends that the advertising done to date be deemed and taken as compliance with the requirements of Standing Order 95.

A Message was received from the Senate informing this House that the Senate had passed the following Bills, without any amendment:—

Bill No. 234, An Act to amend The Judges Act, 1946.

Bill No. 235, An Act to amend The Family Allowances Act, 1944.
