

they were destined to transmit to succeeding ages, ascended gloriously to heaven, where Thou art seated on the right hand of the Eternal Father. Vouchsafe to grant me Thy blessing, for myself and all who are dear to me; give me with it, the grace to serve Thee faithfully in all things to the end; and may I be found worthy to share in the benediction reserved for Thy elect at the last day.

AT THE LAST GOSPEL.

O Jesus my Redeemer, who having died upon the cross for my salvation, didst rise again, glorious and immortal; grant that dying now to the world and myself, I may henceforth live to Thee. Hitherto, alas! I have been dead in sin, by following my own will and inclinations. I have ungratefully repaid Thy mercies with neglect, outrage and contempt. Let not, O Lord, this heart of mine be any longer
