

THE FOURTEENTH
LONDONIAD:

(COMPLETE IN ITSELF.)

GIVING A FULL DESCRIPTION OF THOSE
PRINCIPAL ESTABLISHMENTS,
IN THE ART-METROPOLIS OF ENGLAND,
BIRMINGHAM;

WHICH ARE THE MOST SUITABLE FOR CANADA, ETC.

BY JAMES TORRINGTON SPENCER LIDSTONE,
OF TORQUAY, DEVON, LATE OF TORONTO AND OTTAWA, UPPER CANADA.

Author of the "Conquest of Canada," "Ancient America," "Pictorial Description of the British Provinces in North America," "Geological Survey of Lake Superior," "The Elysium of Art," "Limbo of Science," "Men of the Time," "Canada as a Field for Enterprise", &c. &c. &c.

"Dulcique animos novitate tenebo."—OVID.

PUBLISHED BY THE AUTHOR, AT BIRMINGHAM.

(Entered at Stationers' Hall.)

THE AUTHOR RESERVES THE RIGHT OF TRANSLATION.

PRINTED FOR AND BY THE AUTHOR, SELMA IN MORVEN.

1867.