

CHAPTER XI.

Navigation of the Pack.—Conning Ship.—'Heave'!—'Warp'!—'Track'!—'Haul'	Page 76
--	------------

CHAPTER XII.

Devil's Thumb.—Seals.—Birds.—Boring the Pack.—A Bear Hunt.—Fast ! —Planting Ice-anchors	83
--	----

CHAPTER XIII.

The Ice.—Snow-covered.—Water-sodden.—Honey-combed.—Tough.— Red Ice.—Currents.—Under Currents.—Effects of	94
---	----

CHAPTER XIV.

Melville Bay.—Glaciers.—Race with an Iceberg.—Berg splitting	98
--	----

CHAPTER XV.

Opposite Duncraig Bay.—Glaciers.—Height of Bergs.—Deceptions of Fog. —Formation and Forms of Bergs.—Birds	105
--	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

Bear Hunt.—Warm Fog.—Hummocking.—A Pinch.—Crustacea and Birds	116
---	-----

CHAPTER XVII.

Refraction.—The Arctic Cuisine .—Glaciers.—Advantages of Steamers.— Esquimaux.—Frozen Families near Cape York	124
---	-----

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Crimson Cliffs of Beverly.—Bessie's Cove.—Glacier Formation.— Red Snow.—Atmospheric Transfers	132
--	-----

CHAPTER XIX.

Arctic Highlands.—Florula.—Moss Beds.—Auks' Nests.—Trapping Arctics . —A Black Fox.—"Good-by to Baffin."—Continuous Daylight	139
--	-----

CHAPTER XX.

Entering Lancaster Sound.—Penny's Squadron.—Sir John Ross and the Felix.—The Prince Albert.—Cape Riley.—Traces of Sir John Franklin : his Encampment	149
--	-----

CHAPTER XXI.

Visit to the Encampment.—Beechy Island.—Discovery of the Graves.— Description of them.—Conclusions : and Conjecture as to Franklin's Course	159
---	-----

CHAPTER XXII.

United Searching Squadrons.—Visits.—Ice drifting.—My first Bear.—Bar- low's Inlet.—Cornwallis Island.—Hummocks and Break-up.—Cold in- creasing.—Rendezvous of Union Bay	168
---	-----