

THE MASTER is responsible for the due observance of the Laws relating to private Lodges, and must produce all books, minutes, and accounts when required by any lawful authority.

THE WARDENS or Officers of a Lodge cannot be removed by the Master, except by consent of the Lodge after investigation of the cause of complaint against them.