

Nasmith, David, goes to Guildford, to form a mission, 414
 is seized with illness, 416
 state of his mind, 417
 his death, 422
 post-mortem examination, 422
 funeral services, 423 provision for his family, 426
 his character, 431
 review of his system, 448
 lessons, supplied by the labours of, 454
 his error in too rapid movements, 455
 his claims on London, 464
 his claims compared with those of other classes, 464
 Negress, the happy, 24
 Newark, U. S., formation of a Mission in, 209, 227
 Newburyport, U. S., visit to, 234
 Newell, Mrs. Harriet, 231
 New Orleans, 236, 239, 246
 sabbath desecration in, 247
 Newport, U. S., visit to, 228
 New York, Nasmith sails for, 207 his arrival there, 207
 his views of, 209
 Mission formed in, 217, 227
 results of Nasmith's labours in, 455
 Noel, Hon. and Rev. Baptist, letter from, to Nasmith, 303 to the bishop of London, 310
 to the Committee, 318
 his resignation, 339—341

O

Order, Nasmith's habits of, 31
 Oswald, Miss, Nasmith's introduction to, 142 letter to, on returning to Glasgow from London, 161
 — account of work in Dublin, 171
 — result of three months' experiment, 175
 — success of the Mission, 183
 — landing at New York, 207
 — report on inquiries in London, 284
 — as to the Agency House, 287

Oswald, Miss, her letter as to the Sustentation Fund, 297
 address to, 273

P

Paris, proposal to form a Mission in, 174
 Nasmith's arrival in, 279 formation of a Mission in, 281
 Parnell, Mr. John, (now Lord Congleton,) 145, 148, 152
 Pastors, error of Nasmith concerning, 458 its bad effects, 458 different course pursued by Mr. Blanchard, 458 Patton, Rev. Dr., 216, 217, 218
 Perkins, Mr., death of, 402
 Philadelphia, formation of a City Mission at, 253 its results, 454
 Philip, Rev. Robert, Nasmith's account of, 312 dismisses Mr. and Mrs. Nasmith, 386 his address at the funeral, 424
 Piety, domestic, illustrated, 198
 Pomeroy, the Hon. Mrs., 180
 Portland, U. S., visit to, 235
 Portsmouth, U. S., 235
 Portrait, affecting anecdote of, 51
 Prayer, spirit of, in connexion with the City Mission, 311
 Prayer meeting for Nasmith in Dublin, 302
 Preaching, Nasmith's, American opinion of, 212
 Princeton, visit to, and formation of a Young Men's Society at, 251
 Providence, U. S., visit to, 228
 Probationary house for females, 351
 Prudence, Nasmith's, in London, 303
 Purse, presentation of a, to Nasmith, 142

R

Ramsgate, a Mission formed at, 405
 Read, Miss Harriet, address to, 255 her zeal, 301
 letter from, to Nasmith, 302