

OLD BOYS MET IN NEW SCHOOL

At Scarborough Village as the Year Was Dying—Talked Old Times.

FIVE HUNDRED PRESENT

Where All York County's Wardens From Scarboro
Were Educated.

"Why, it's twenty years ago since I saw you. How are you getting on out west?" These and many other remarks of a similar nature were to be heard yesterday afternoon at the reunion of the old scholars of School Section No. 2, Scarborough Township. Fifty-five hundred and fifty of the old boys were present, and an excellent program, terminating with a regular old-time supper, was arranged by the committee in charge.

The chair was taken by John Richardson, ex-M. L. A., for East York, and speeches were made by the greater part of the attendees.

Talked Old Times.
The chairman viewed the old school days when as a boy he attended the school. An interesting fact was that all the warden's York County, who came from Scarborough Township, received their early education at this school. For fifty-five years out of the sixty-five last Scarborough has been incorporated as a township, the reversion has been held by the township, which constitutes a remarkable record.

VIGOROUS LOCAL OPTION CAMPAIGN IN BROCKVILLE
Temperance Men Speaking Nightly, But Opponents Confining Fight to Press Notices.
BROCKVILLE, Dec. 31.--Brockville is just now passing thru a vigorous local option campaign. The temperance element is holding rallies almost nightly. Speakers of note who have figured include Rev. Dr. McGregor, Rev. S. E. Grigg and Rev. T. Albert Moore, executive officers of the leading councils of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist Churches of Canada respectively. A. A. Wright, ex-M. P., and W. E. Smallfield of Rendrew are announced for Friday night and on the following day arrangements have been made for holding a parade thru the streets by the pupils of the town Sunday schools to win votes for the abolition of the bar in the Island City. The liquor interests have so far confined their fight to press notices and to the point.
World editorials are convincing
and to the point.

CELEBRATION IN PARIS IS ON AMERICAN PLAN
Midnight Suppers in Cafes Feature of New Year's Birth.
PARIS, Jan. 1.--(Can. Press).--Undismayed by the bitter weather, Parisians, crowding the boulevards and the restaurants, saw the new year in with noise and feasting. The custom of midnight supper, introduced by the Americans, has become a feature of the Paris new year's eve. Most of the tables were taken a month ago.
The ambassadors and ministers have decided not to follow diplomatic usage of previous years, and will make no new year's call on each other.
They will, however, call on the members of the cabinet and high government officials as usual.

MATOA NOT YET RELEASED.
SARNIA, Dec. 31.--(Special).--The officers of the Reid Wrecking Company here state that the wrecked steamer Matoa of the Pittsburgh

Steamship Line, has not as yet been released from the rocks at Point Aux Barques, where she hit during the storm on Black Sunday. The Reid had her in shape for raising several times, but were unable to complete the work before bad weather set in.

NO FOUNDATION FOR CHARGE.
KINGSTON, Dec. 31.--(Special).-- Acting on the request of the local police the police in St. John, N.B., made an investigation into the charge that a 16-year-old girl, coming out from the old country, had been detained in St. John, a victim of the white slave traffic. They found that she was in a most respectable home. The girl has a good position, is happy and will shortly be married to a young man living in St. John.

PORTSMOUTH ACCLAMATIONS.
KINGSTON, Dec. 31.--(Special).-- M. J. Keeney, J. Forsythe, R. J. Ben-den and N. Henderson were elected by acclamation as councillors for the Village of Portsmouth. John Fisher and James Halliday will have a warm contest for the reversion.
