

MONTREAL'S NEW EVENING PAPER

WILL BE PUBLISHED MAY 27th

The Evening News is being issued in response to a widespread and insistent public demand. It has been obliged to contend with great obstacles—obstacles not ordinarily placed in the path of a public journal.

The public will be pleased to learn that these obstacles have been overcome.

The fight for the privilege of providing the people of Montreal with an independent evening newspaper is over. The people and The Evening News have won.

Publication will commence on Wednesday, May 27th.

The struggle The Evening News has had has not been without its compensations. The publishers have realized that they were supported by a militant public opinion and by a popular good-will rarely witnessed in the launching of a new newspaper.

This good-will the publishers will do their utmost to deserve. In no circumstances will it be abused.

The Evening News from the day of its first publication will be a finished newspaper, strong in features which will give it a welcome place in the home. Before all other things a clean newspaper, it will require no parental censorship before reading by the junior members of the family circle.

Politically, The Evening News will be independent. It will have no entanglement, political or corporate, to restrict the free exercise of its duty to the public.

THE EVENING NEWS

"A NEWSPAPER THE PEOPLE CAN TRUST"

What The Daily Mail (Morning) Has Done:

In announcing the publication of The "Evening News" we lay before you the record of our morning paper, The "Daily Mail."

Net Paid Circulation	Percentage of gains over First Month
October 1913	10,234
November "	10,588	3 per cent.
December "	11,500	8 per cent.
January 1914	14,149	20 per cent.
February "	16,814	34 per cent.
March "	19,015	45 per cent.
April "	20,056	50 per cent.

This circulation in 7 months is evidence that the reading public of Montreal wanted a one cent morning paper—and that The Daily Mail is satisfying that field. No premiums or cut rates have been used in securing subscriptions.

What The Evening News (Evening) Will Do:

The "Evening News" will make its appearance on May 27th—the same news policy and business policy which has made The "Daily Mail" a success will be followed—thus insuring its immediate and continued success.

For the first time in Canadian newspaper history—a leased wire from The United Press Association, New York, will be operated for the exclusive use of The Evening News. This is the same service as used by The New York World and New York Sun.

Special cable services covering British and European events of particular interest to Canadians have been arranged for—in addition to those splendid telegraph and cable services controlled by The United Press.

The Evening News on May 27th will be a finished newspaper—inviting comparison with the leading afternoon issues in Canada.

EXCAVATORS UNEARTH FINE STATUE OF VENUS
Head and Arms Missing, But Search is Being Made for Them.

Canadian Press Despatch.
ROME, May 22.—A life-size statue of Venus has been found by excavators near Cyrene, North Africa, which in the early centuries was the seat of Greek culture. The statue which dates back to the 6th century B.C.—the time of Praxiteles, the celebrated Greek sculptor—was of Parian marble and once stood in the Temple of Apollo. The head and arms are missing, and the excavators are continuing their search in the hope that they will be found. The Venus, which is considered a masterpiece of Greek sculpture, will be brought to Rome in June and placed in the National Museum.

VICTORIA STREET DEAL
Upper Victoria street's first deal of months has been closed, and involves number 364, which is north of Gould street. This property was owned by Jacob Heather and was transferred to Mary T. Doneshy. As a mortgage for over $18,000 is included in the transaction it is probable that the consideration was in the neighborhood of $25,000.

Assessments amount to over $10,000 of which the larger part is on the land.

FUNERAL OF PROF. KIRKPATRICK.

KINGSTON, May 22.—The funeral of Prof. Alexander K. Kirkpatrick was held at Calvary Cemetery today. The body was conveyed to St. George's Cathedral, where the burial service was read, Rev. C. W. RUTTAN ESCAPED FROM HIS HOME

Pose Opened Fire and Murderer Was Seen to Stumble.

get the pancakes which he knew she would have ready for him. She told the police of his placing the children where they could hear the slightest noise, and of his desperate break for liberty. He has a rifle, she said, and plenty of ammunition, purchased in Barkway, the day before the murder and claims he will never be taken alive. Ruttan told her again last night not to worry if he did not come back, because he might decide to make an end of himself in the bush. Mrs. Ruttan believes that her husband's hope is to kill Alfred, his son-in-law, before he is captured. She stated that he told her if he could get one shot at him he didn't care what happened. According to her he will succeed or surrender as soon as he kills Coutermache. A threat made by Ruttan to the effect that he would appear at the funeral ceremonies today at Barkway and shoot down Alfred Coutermache and all the latter's friends put the neighborhood in a state of terror. When the funeral of the two victims did pass it was closely followed by a dozen armed men who kept close watch on the bush at each side of the road. Coutermache's hearing of Ruttan's threat, was afraid to venture out, and remained in Fryer's home with two white men, his wife was being buried two miles away.

The funeral of George Coutermache and the outlaw's daughter was attended by about forty neighbors today. Rev. Findley Crowther of the Free Methodist Church, conducted the burial services.

Ruttan's wild declarations of shooting down enemies have caused consternation among the people. The public school has had to close since the day of the murder because the children and later the teacher were afraid to attend.

Two armed men are watching Ruttan's house and a posse of nearly 40 men is scouring the woods southeast to which he is thought to have gone. Mrs. Walker of Housay Rapids drove past a bluff in these woods yesterday morning and reported to the police that she saw a man whom she took to be Ruttan working his way around the scrub. All morning the men had searched thru the woods to the west, and on the strength of this new information the forty men were dispatched to these woods. In this shelter, police officials admit, Ruttan, if he wished to do so, could possibly evade the law for weeks. He knows every foot of the way thru them. They extend two and a half miles to Buck Lake and are about six miles in length. Now that an attempt has been made to get him in his own home, the police think the outlaw may attempt to get out of the country. So far as is known he has had but one meal since the murder, and tonight it is thought he will make one more effort to get food and then go north. The idea has been set forth to remove his wife and family from the home, so that he will no longer be able to get food there.

Till late tonight the men will search for the murderer and another watch be kept on the house for him, in the hope that he will return for food. The posse have orders to shoot Ruttan down if necessary.

Mrs. Ruttan has not slept since the murder and is evidently on the verge of a collapse.

An hour after the escape of Ruttan last night she was seen going out with a lantern, and the belief is that in the few minutes husband and wife had together, arrangements for future communication and placing food for Ruttan were made. Today's search was carried on in a rain, which drenched the searchers to the skin.

Physicians Endorse Great Diabetes Remedy

The greatest recommendation any remedy can have is an endorsement by leading physicians, and its adoption by schools and colleges.

SANOL Anti-Diabetes is endorsed by many of Winnipeg's leading physicians who do not hesitate to recommend it to their patients.

Sanol Anti-Diabetes is now recognized as the one remedy that will actually cure diabetes. It is a comparatively new remedy, having been on the market only two years, but in that time thousands of cases have been cured, and the treatment of diabetes revolutionized.

One patient writes: "After taking eight bottles of Sanol Anti-Diabetes, was completely cured." Write for our booklet, which gives full information regarding our treatment of diabetes, and testimonials from former sufferers who have been cured.

Sanol Anti-Diabetes is sold by all druggists.

DOVERCOURT SCHOOL WON HILTZ SHIELD

Carried Off Double Trio Competition for Seventh Year in Succession.

EMPIRE DAY CONCERT

Young Songsters Delighted Large Audience at Massey Hall.

For the seventh year in succession Dovercourt School won the Double Trio Competition for W. W. Hiltz's Shield at the Empire Day school concert, held at Massey Hall last night. The competitions for the medals and shields were very keen and the judges had considerable difficulty in making their selections. In the recitation competition Violet Dunn of Howard school carried off the honors with "My Wish," a humorous piece, which was rendered in a charming manner. Hazel Bulmer of Perth avenue school won the silver medal.

Jean Rowe, the 11-year-old scholar of Strathcona school, carried off the gold medal in the soloist competition. Jean is a pupil of Atherton Furlong and it was not until the last minute, after her teacher had made several applications for her to be included, that she was permitted to compete. The song selected was to be sung in "C," which was considered too low for the child's voice, but the judges would not make any concessions on her behalf by allowing her to sing in a higher key. Ethel Anderson of Earl Grey school was second, and a special silver medal was added for the other competitor, Flossie Collins of Dovercourt.

Dovercourt school was also successful in the choir competition, Perth avenue school being second. Velma Vetter, the child who won the gold medal in 1913 in the recitation competition, gave a further exhibition of her skill. The combined choir were in splendid condition, rendering all their pieces without a single hitch. In their last number, "Song National," which was composed by Gordon V. Thompson of Toronto, they scored their biggest triumph.

Taking the concert all round, it was one of the best held.
