EVANS SLASHED HANDS SMASHING WINDOWS West Toronto Presbyterians Have

Eighteen-Year-Old Resident of Sussex Avenue Taken to Hospital, Then to Police Station.

Declaring that he had owned them all, as he had recently purchased them, Harry Evans, 18 years of age, 24 Sussex avenue, started out on a mad race down Spadina avenue yesterday afternoon and smashed a number of plate glass windows with his fist, and when he was placed under arrest by Policeman O'Shea, he claimed ownership of him too. Six windows were shattered in the picture and frame store of J. W. Geddes, 425 Spaframe store of J. W. Geddes, 425 Spadina avenue, being the first to receive his attention. Hearing the crash the occupants of the store looked up and saw Evans coolly walking away from the window. When they ran to the door they saw the window of the Mosaic Marble Company go in with a bang. Still walking at a slow pace he demolished in succession the same than the same that the same than demolished in succession the windows of Austin and Wilson, 431; Chestnut and Coulter, ladies tailors, 433; J. Landon, 435, photographer; Grossman, 437, ladies' tailors. Three times he attempted to break the window of J. H. Todd, 439, boot merchant, but his gloved fist failed to make an impression on it. He also failed to smash the window of J. Galloway, 427,

Evans was first taken to the Western Hospital, where his gashed hands were dressed. From there he was removed to Clarement Street Police

UNION IS REJECTED

Three Hundred and Sixty. Eight Against.

After a spirited discussion, covering every phase of the question, Victoria Presbyterians in West Toronto last night rejected the proposal for church union by the overwhelming vote of 368 to 134. The vote was taken following a full discussion touching the several phases of the question. The opposition to union is greater than at a former vote, taken three or four years ago, and is as follows: Elders—opposed 14, in favor 4; adherents—opposed 55, in favor 11; members—opposed 299, in favor 129.

YORK COUNTY REGIMENT FORMATION DISCUSSED

County Council Decides at Opening Session to Give Movement Its Support.

At the opening session of the York County Council yesterday afternoon the time of the members was mostly given up to a consideration of the best means to be taken for the formation of the proposed York County Regiment. A number of the officers of the 12th York Rangers were present and urged the active co-operation of the council along the line of financial and moral support. It is proposed to hold recruiting meetings in a number of districts, the districts corresponding practically with the area of a township. On Thursday night it is proposed to banquet the retiring warden.

WHY PRINCETON DID NOT ASK BILLY SUNDAY

A Statement in Defence of the Inhospitable Attitude of the University Authorities Toward that Evangelist

> By ANDREW F. WEST, Reprinted from New York Times, April 8, 1915

To the Editor of The New York Times. Princeton University is being attacked in certain religious papers for not inviting Mr. Sunday to address our students. As a member of the Presbyterian Church and a teacher in Princeton University for over thirty years, may I ask, in view of recently published criticisms, that you will print this statement giving some of the reasons why Mr. Sunday was not invited to hold his meetings here under the auspices and with the Sunday a similar invitation.

indorsement of the university? Let me say emphatically that it was not because Mr. Sunday's teachings are evangelical. Far from it. Princeton was founded and has lived on the fundamental, historical, evangelical Christian faith, and with few slanderous. Take without comment the exceptions no other gospel has been heard here. The attitude of President Hibben and the authorities is in accord with this, no matter what passing difficulties may arise.

Nevertheless, there are grave reasons why Princeton University should not favor Mr. Sunday's methods as likely to do good to our students. He has been free to come, as he did, and our students have been entirely free to hear him, as they did in large numbers-but not on invitation nor with the encouragement of the authorities of the university. Wny not? Let me state some of the reasons:

1. In matters of religion there is only one standard for Christians, and that standard is our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I gladly admit that Mr. Sunday means to be

Take another and worse instance, where Christ in prayer is turned to a jesting use:

And as He prayed the fashion of His countenance was altered. Ladies, do you want to look pretty? If some of you women would spind less on dope, pazaza, and cold cream; and get down on your knees and pray, God would make you prettier.

Very funny, no doubt; and very blasphemous.

2. At times Mr. Sunday is irreverently familiar toward God. This appears clearly in the scene at his Philadelphia meeting on Jan. 8:

Why, if I thought I could get any nearer God by kneeling, or get nearer to Him by taking off my coat, I'd do it.

(Here Sunday suited the action to the word and tore his coat from his back. Seizing it by the collar in his right hand, he flung it around to lend emphasis to his utterances.)

Here is another sample:

Is this the way the Bible speaks?

Princeton, April 6, 1915. swaggering implety. "Enter not into judgment with thy servant, O Lord." is the right attitude of soul in the presence of God. Mr. Sunday is speaking impudently in the presence of "the King eternal, immortal and invisible." to whom alone is due "honor and story forever"-even now, even at Mr. Sunday's performances. It was Jonathan Edwards, an early president of Princeton, who wrote of these sublime words in hushed awe as he gazed from his window one Autumn day: "As I read them the whole forest seemed to glow." No irreverence there. Is not the devout fear of God the "beginning of wisdom" still, and is it not deeply needed in American life to-day? 8. Many of Mr. Sunday's remarks are personally abusive or disgusting or following series:

If a woman on the avenue plays a game of cards in her home, she is worse than any blackleg gambler in the slums.

If a minister believes and teaches evolution, he is a stinking skunk, a hypocrite and a liar.

If I were the wife of some of you man crite and a liar.

If I were the wife of some of you men, I'd refuse to clean their old spittoons. I say let every hog clean his own trough.

Your wife has as good a right to line up before a bar and fill up her skin with the hog-gut you do as you have. Do we need more of the same sort? 4. There are also some statements, fortunately few-but enough-which are plainly indecent. Take the following instances and remember they are the Gospel of Christ, spoken at a secalled religious service. See if you approve of them;

Saviour Jesus Christ. I gladly admit that Mr. Sunday means to be evangelical in his statements. But many of his utterances are, to put it mildly, not Christ-like, and some of them are travesties of the teaching of Christ. Take the following samples. less vulgar than many others, which are both a carloature and a perversion of one of the most sacred scenes in the New Testament;

Mary was one of those sort of uneeda biscuit, peanut butter, gelatin and pimento sort of women.

Martha was a beefsteak, baked potato, apple sauce with lemon and nulmes, coffee and whipped cream, apple ple and cheese sort of women.

So you can have your pick, but I speak for Martha. So the churches have a lot of Marthas and a lot of Marys-merely bench warmers. Hurrah for Martha!

So Martha was getting dinner and poked her head in the door where Mary was sittling and said:

"Mary, carest thou not that I serve alone?"

Wouldn't it make you tired if you were doing all the work and had your hands all over dough and the sweat rolling off as you cooked the potaloes, if your big, lazy sister was sitting doing nothing? Then Josus said:

"Tut, tut, Martha, thou carest for too many little things."

Take another and worse instance,

Little girl; you look so small.

Don't you wear no clothes at all?

Don't you wear no chemise shirt?

Don't you wear no petty skirt?

Don't you wear no underclothes,

But your corset and your hose?

No decent person can read these quotations without shame.

Every passage quoted in this article is taken from the official copyrighed report of Mr. Sunday's Philadelphia addresses published with his sanction in the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph during January and February. Their accuracy cannot be questioned. It is true that these quotations are not the main stock and substance of his addresses, but some of the occasional ornaments, giving what is called "punch" to his discourses. They are things of the sort singled out for special separate printing in the Evening Telegraph, often in large type, as

When I am at heaven's gates I'll be free from old Philly's blood. I can see now the Day of Judgment, when the question of Philadelphia and of me is taken up by God.

"You were down in Philly, weren't you, Billy?" the Lord will ask me.

And I'll say to Him, "Yes, Sir, Lord, I was there."

"'Did you give them any message of salvation, Billy?"

"I gave them your message. Lord. I gave it to them the best way I could and as I understood it. You go get the files of the Philadelphia papers. They printed my sermons, Lord. You'll see in them what I preached." will be my answer.

And the Lord will say, "Come on in, Bill; you're free from Philadelphia's blood."

Telegraph, often in large type, as "jolts." So they are.

So in the name of decency and of the purity and sanctity of our Christian faith Princeton University positively refuses to approve Mr. Sunday's performances as suitable for the edification of our students. In times of hysterical excitement we think it our right and duty to stand firm against all inflammatory mob-oratory in whatever field it may appear. For his quiet and sensible stand; in this matter President Hibben deserves the thanke blood." of all friends of education and religion. ANDREW F. WEST.
