

CONTENTS

OLD AND NEW HAMPSTEAD

	PAGE
Steele—The Kit-Cats—Dickens and red-hot chops— Lamb—Leigh Hunt's cottage—"Sleep and Poe- try"—Hazlitt on Leigh Hunt—Leigh Hunt's friends—Modern Hampstead—The salons—The conversation—The Hempstead poets	229

A WEDDING AN BOHEMIA

Bride and bridegroom—The procession—Madame of the restaurant—Crème de Menthe—The morning	241
---	-----

A NOVELIST

.	255
-----------	-----

A PAINTER

.	267
-----------	-----

A GIPSY POET

.	275
-----------	-----

CONCLUSION

Crabbe in 1781 and in 1817—Bohemia only a stage in a man's life—The escape from convention—Prac- tical matters—Hazlitt and John Lamb—The farewell to Bohemia—Marriage—Success—Quod erat demonstrandum	283
---	-----