

THE PRESENT STATE
OF THE
British and French TRADE
TO AFRICA and AMERICA

Consider'd and Compar'd ;
With some Propositions in Favour
OF THE TRADE of GREAT BRITAIN.

THE English Nation are very apt to have too mean an Opinion of the Trade and Navigation of other Nations, particularly the French, notwithstanding the Superiority they have insensibly gain'd over us in several Branches of Commerce since the Peace of Utrecht.

THE Number of Prizes that have been taken from the French, and the frequent Arrivals of their numerous Fleets, have rouz'd and open'd the Eyes of many that would not be convinc'd before: And
