LIFE, WRITINGS, PRINCIPLES, AND PROJECTS

OF

ROBERT GOURLAY, Esq.

NOW

ROBERT FLEMING GOURLAY.

"Oh that I were as in months past, — as in the days when God preserved me: — When his candle shined upon my head; and when, by his light, I walked through darkness: — As I was in the days of my youth, when the spirit of God was upon my tabernacle, — When the Almighty was yet with me, — When my children were about me. — But, now, they that are younger than I hold me in derision, whose fathers I would have disclaimed to have set with the dogs of my flock." — Job xxix and xxx.

S. N. DICKINSON, PRINTER.

The Subscriber ~~propose~~ publishing a work of novel character, and one which will be of unusual interest to the reading community. The materials will be furnished by ROBERT FLEMING GOURLAY, of the County of Fife, in Scotland, who may be recollected, by some, as the cause of much excitement in Canada, in the year 1818; and, afterwards, in England.

The work will embrace accounts of the singular hardships and difficulties which he has encountered during thirty-four years of his life; and, will also contain an exposé of his plans regarding POOR LAWS, EMIGRATION, and SLAVERY, with other matters of public interest, which untoward events have hitherto prevented him from making known.

The Subscribers feel confident that a publication of this description, cannot fail to receive a liberal support in this community. ~~It~~ will issue it in weekly NUMBERS, at very low rates.
