

- Hilton, Mr., builds golf course at Wimereux, 119.
- Hollings, Mrs., and 4th Section British Red Cross at the Trentino front, 220.
- Horse ambulances at the front, 96.
- Hospital barges in French rivers and canals, 100.
- Hospital trains at the front, 100.
- Hospitals, floating, 88.
- in France, our, a world of their own, 101.
- Hudson, Sir Robert, Financial Manager of Red Cross, 110.
- Hun, support of, in Spanish society, 256.
- IRWIN, Major A.W.A., R.A.M.C., 127.
- Italian armies, enquiry into, welcomed by Gen. Cadorna, 221.
- Army, with the—Invitation from the King of Italy, 189.
- soldiers, varied diet of, 5.
- surgical mobile hospitals, visit to, 220.
- Switzerland, 230.
- Italy, King of, head of the Italian Army, 73; modest and self-effacing, ibid.
- JOAN OF ARC, statue of, at Reims undamaged, 154.
- Joffre, General, visit to, 67; his humble quarters, 68; an early riser and a regular routine, ibid.; his methods at the Battle of the Marne, ibid.; his great organizing work, 69; his simple uniform, ibid.; an impression of massiveness, ibid.; a great personality of the war, ibid.; how he is bearing the war, 70.
- KZOGH, Sir Alfred, 98; his work for the Red Cross, 120.
- Kinematograph, the, and the war, use by British of, 89.
- Kinematographers, mobilized by Germans for pictorial records of the war, 89.
- King's doctor, the English, acts as his own dresser, 6.
- Kultur in Reims, disastrous effect of, 158.
- LABOUR battalions in France, patriotic keenness of, 20.
- Lauzanne, Stéphane, editor of Le Matin, excellent work in Switzerland of, 252.
- Leave for officers and men, urgent need of, 46, 47.
- Lichtervelde, Comte de, Baron de Broqueville's secretary, 178.
- Life in Reims, 158-158.
- Lines of communication in France, a delicate task, 16; comparison of, with those of friendly and enemy countries, ibid.
- Little Belgian Army, the New, 177-185.
- Liverpool, air bombardment of, 167.
- Llopert, Captain, Swiss medical officer to prisoners in Switzerland, 237.
- Lunn, Mr., his good work for British prisoners in Switzerland, 241.
- MacKENZIE, Capt., a fighting Salvationist, 81.
- Macpherson, General, and field operating theatres, 98.
- Marconi, Commendatore, and German secret wireless apparatus in Spain, 267.
- Mechanics, skilled, in France, patriotic keenness of, 20.
- Medical army, English, numerical strength of, 90 seq.